SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN

The 300-mile shore line of Southeastern Michigan, curving northward from the Ohio border on Lake Erie, follows the busy Detroit river, rounds beautiful Lake St. Clair, the Flat and St. Clair rivers, bounds the mighty waters of Lake Huron and forms the outline of The Thumb by circling Saginaw Bay.

This water-bordered land, cooled by the gentle breezes from two of the Great Lakes, is one of the Wolverine state's ideal vacation sections.

Dynamic Detroit, the automobile and aviation center of the world, with its beautiful suburban development, has many sister cities in this section—Mt. Clemens frequently called "the Caribbees of America" because of the popularity of its mineral baths; Port Huron, with its many beautiful beaches at the headwaters of the St. Clair river; Pontiac, the busy manufacturing center, joined with Detroit by the nation's greatest highway; and many other thriving towns, all hold great educational, scenic and recreational interest.

Whether the visitor to Southeastern Michigan comes from far or near, he is at home as the nearest telephone. And Long Distance Rates Are Surprisingly Low!
