SAYS "MOST EVERY TOWN JUST HAPPENED"—THAT FAITH BRINGS GROWTH

R. W. Fisher, editor of the Wala Wala, Washington Union, says: "That most every town just happened at the start."

"That its growth depended on faith."

"That when a man has faith in a town he is proud of it."

"That when a man is proud of his community, his state, his nation."

"That when he is proud of his town he will fight for it, just as he will fight for other things he considers as his."

"That one of the biggest assets is the man who says it is 'My town'."

"That when you get a whole group to look upon it as 'My Town' you cannot stop the growth of that town, for other folks want to cast their lots with a place of that sort."

"The sooner it becomes 'My Town' to all the people, the sooner it will grow."

"PRESENT ARMS" COMING TO SHUBERT-DETROIT THEATRE FOR ONE WEEK

Lev Fields' "Present Arms," described as a musical comedy sensation dealing with the adventures of the Marines in Hawaii and the south seas, will open at the Shubert-Detroit Opera House on Labor Day, Monday, September 3 for an engagement of one week only.

"Present Arms" is one of the outstanding musical hits of the current season on Broadway and comes to the Shubert-Detroit direct from its long run at Lev Fields' Mansfield Theatre, New York, with its original cast and production intact.

The dances are as exceptional as they are new and are the creation of Busby Berkeley, who is credited with staging the dances for six of New York's latest hits.

Among the many stage novelties of "Present Arms" is a scene of a raft adrift at sea approaching a desert isle which appears apparently out of nowhere and another novelty of this type is the docking of the giant transport "St. Mihiel" at Pearl Harbor.

Numbered among the company's 100 members are such popular musical favorites as Charles King, remembered as the love-sick gob in the New York production of "Hit the Deck"; Doris Patison, English beauty, imported by Florenz Ziegfeld to play opposite Len Errol in "Louis the 14th"; Franker Woods of the funny legs and squeaking voice last seen as comedian in "Hit the Deck" in New York.

Night prices $3 with no tax-bargain matinee Wednesday, $2.
