NEW BUS SERVES NOBLE, WILLIAM GRACE SCHOOL PUPILS OF DISTRICT 6

School opening this year at the Noble School, District 6, has been made notable by a number of important changes and advancements in conduct of the school. Acquisition of a school bus has made it possible, through the bus serving both Noble and William Grace Schools, to anticipate a much higher standard of efficiency in school work.

Where all eight grades were formerly taught in such school, through co-operation of the bus, the work has been combined. In addition, the Board has what it believes to be a very strong staff of teachers.

Mrs. May Thomas is principal and teaches the fourth and fifth grades; Mrs. Spurlin is in charge of sixth, seventh and eighth grades; Mrs. Roy P. Plimpton teaches the second and third grades, and Miss Graham is in

LARGE GATHERING AT WALLED LAKE FOR HOMECOMING

Morning and Afternoon Sessions Are Held At Reunion Of Old Residents

A large number attended the Walled Lake annual Homecoming last Saturday.
