About fifteen friends and neighbors of Mrs. August Giestler spent Saturday afternoon at her home in honor of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Woodgrift have taken an apartment in Detroit for the winter and rented their house on Orchard Lake avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

The Ladies' Community Circle will meet with Mrs. John Dickie, Walled Lake road, for their October meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Weatherbee and family are now occupying the Martha Unsworth house on Orchard Lake.

Mrs. Lizzie Tietze spent the week end with C. P. Tietze and family of Greening boulevard.

Mrs. George Eddy of Ann Arbor is spending a week with Mrs. J. B. Bullis of Greening boulevard, Oakland Heights.

William Lake has resigned his position as manager of the Glen Oaks Golf Club. He will leave the first part of October for the South.

John Brown, who drives the bus for the Bond School district, covers approximately 32 miles calling for and taking children back from school.

Frank Mitchell and family spent Sunday at New Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lauritzen entertained guests from Detroit for Sunday dinner.

Mrs. Ray Oldham and children visited Mr. Oldham in Ann Arbor on Sunday. He is feeling quite well.

In 1907, when the Oakland Motor Car Company was organized, Pontiac, Mich., home of the company, was a sleepy village on an old Indian trail with about 12,000 residents. The population has increased five-fold since then, and today strictly automotive products make up 97 per cent of the annual output of the town.
