Farmington Woman's Club To Have First Meeting; Luncheon Planned

Preliminary work for the musical comedy, "Rosetime," to be given in October under the auspices of the Farmington Woman's Club is under way.

Committee has been organized, and the cast of characters is under consideration, the committee in charge having already secured some excellent talent for principal roles. Details will be made public after the arrival of a capable and experienced young woman as coach, whose reputation in that line is a guarantee of an artistic and finished production. It is hoped to make the affair an event in the social and dramatic history of Farmington.

The first regular club meeting of the year will be held Wednesday, October 3, at the Salem Evangelical Church. There will be a luncheon at one o'clock, served by the ladies of the church. At two o'clock the Rev. Frederic Cowin of Ann Arbor will give a talk on the poet Burns. Mr. Cowin is a lover of Scottish poetry and a most captivating speaker on this theme.
