LUNCHEON OPENS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES OF WOMAN'S CLUB

October Meeting To Be Held Next Wednesday At The Steele "Old Homestead"

The current year's activities of the Farmington Woman's Club were opened by a luncheon given Wednesday, October 3, at the Salem Evangelical Church. Acknowledgements are due the ladies of the church for an excellent and daintily appointed meal.

At its close club members and friends numbering 60 went above stairs to the lecture hall to hear the speaker of the day.

The Reverend Frederic Cowin, of Ann Arbor, thoroughly familiar with his subject, and sincerely appreciative of the fine, simple lyrics of the peasant-poet, told of "Bobbie" Burns. Those who heard were made to feel the charm of Scotland's best-loved son, who belongs not alone to his native land, but to each and all of us.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held Wednesday, October 17, at 2:30, at the home of Mrs. Frank Steele, Miss Hard, Mrs. Daines, and Miss Sprague are to furnish the program. Those who in past years have enjoyed Mrs. Steele's hospitality understand fully why an October meeting at the "Old Homestead" has become a Club tradition.

'CLEANUP DAYS' OF VALUE IN WORK OF FIRE PREVENTION

Survey Shows Accumulated Rubbish Is Greatest Fire Hazard; Bad Heaters Next

Of particular interest to Farmington in view of the "Cleanup Days" designated for October 17, 18 and 19, is a Bulletin issued this week on the causes of fire. It shows that accumulation of rubbish are by far the greatest menace. It reads as follows:

A warning in time is worth heeding. To some people there is "handwriting on the wall" in the warning in the report of fire hazards rendered by the Fire Prevention Bureau of a large mid-western city.

For the month of June the Bureau made 4,401 inspections, finding fire hazards to the number of 1,365. Predominating in this total were bad heating units and rubbish, divided as follows: Flues, 387; furnaces, stoves and hot plates, 58; heating appliances, 6; stoves and smokepipes, 29. Total heating units bad, 480.

Accumulations of straw, trash, rubbish and waste paper constituted fire hazards to the number of 545.

Since these two classifications contained the greatest number of fire hazards, it is very probable that they caused the majority of fires suffered by the city in the past, according to The National Board of Fire Underwriters. It is also likely that a similar state of affairs exists in most communities.

All should take heed, therefore, and correct such conditions. Rubbish, the largest item, requires attention continually; it should not be allowed to accumulate at any time or any place. This month, particularly, heating units should be inspected and unsafe conditions corrected. Soon cold weather will require the use of these units and if the warning is not heeded there will be many destructive fires.

A capacity audience greeted with evident pleasure the program of the Chorus Choir of the Walled Lake Methodist Church at the Methodist Church in Mt. Clemens on Sunday evening. Two anthems, "He Shall Come Down Like Rain," by Buck, and "I Am Alpha and Omega," by Stainer, were sung by the choir.
