

CHURCHES

Evangelical Church
Rev. A. A. Schom, Pastor
English service, 10:15.
Subject: "Who Owns You?"
This will be a service to which young people and children are especially welcomed.
Sunday School, 11:15.
Classes for all ages.
The Bible School needs you, you need the Bible School.
Membership class Monday evening.
Training class Monday evening.
Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon.
Evangelical League, Wednesday evening.
Choir, Friday evening.
Confirmation Class Saturday morning.

Baptist Church
Rev. E. W. Palmer, Pastor
10:30—Morning worship with Communion served.
The Pastor will speak on "The Person and Attributes of the Holy Spirit." There will be the reception of new members.
11:45—Bible School with classes for all ages.
6:30—B. Y. P. U. for young people.
7:30—Gospel service.
These Sunday night services are becoming more and more popular. We are having exceptionally large crowds. The sermon subject will be "The Lame Man Leaped."
Wednesday nights we meet for Bible study.

Our Lady of Sorrows Church
Rev. James A. Callahan, Pastor
Sunday masses at 8:30 and 11.
Daily mass at 8:00.

Methodist Church
Dr. H. Addis Leeson, Pastor
"Our Citizenship" is the subject announced for Sunday morning by Dr. Leeson, the pastor. President Coolidge said, "The government of a country never gets ahead of the religion of a country." Ever in a campaign were the issues on moral lines so sharply drawn. Fine, inspiring music. And the evening service is increasingly pleasing to those who come and share in its simple and informal worship.

West Point Park Independent Church
Rev. George Gullen, Pastor
Next Sunday, November 4 "Callaghan and his team" from Wesleyan Guild has full charge of all the services, at 10:30 and 11:45 a. m., 6:30 and 7:30 p. m. All are invited to come and bring your friends.

Clarenceville M. E. Church
Rev. Robert Richards, Pastor
10:30—Morning worship.
11:30—Sunday School.
7:30—Evening service.

REUBEN TILLEY HURT
Reuben Tilley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Tilley of Greening boulevard, a primary pupil of the Bond school, while crossing Orchard Lake on his way home from school Monday was struck by an automobile and bruised quite badly.

The North Farmington Sunday School is held at the Bond School Sunday mornings at 10:45, led by B. L. Maynard, Supt.
Mrs. Isaac Bond as delegate of the North Farmington Cemetery Auxiliary attended the 28th annual meeting of the Oakland Federation of Woman's Clubs which was held Tuesday at the Congregational Church at Pontiac.

The Halloween party given by the Glenoaks Club Saturday night was a big success.

Mrs. Frank Walters is spending several days with her grandmother, Mrs. Osvald of Detroit.

The Willing Workers will have their meeting and noon dinner at the home of Mrs. Marie Walters on 13-Mile road on Thursday, November 8.

To relieve the crowded "40" farm telephone line, several residents have had their phones changed to the "309" cable.

Mrs. Frank Mitchell's condition continues to be very serious. The next meeting of the Ladies Community Circle will be entertained by Mrs. W. Seger at her home on the 14-Mile road, Wednesday, November 14.

Victor Govro, who recently purchased the Sherlock house on Greening boulevard, is building an addition to the place, with a southern exposure.

Mrs. J. Bullis spent Tuesday in Detroit.

The regular meeting of the Oakland Heights Improvement Association will be held at the school Wednesday evening, November 7.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harding, who recently moved to New Jersey, spent the week end in their old neighborhood.

Mrs. William Morris was hostess last Saturday at a bridge luncheon in her home. First prize went to Pauline Ringel of Detroit, second was won by Louise Meir of Detroit and Ethel Wadenstorer won the consolation.

The idea of a bazaar for the North Farmington Ladies' Community Circle has been abandoned.

The season's first meeting of the North Farmington Nutrition class was held October 24th at the home of Mrs. Bert Coe with nine ladies present. The subject studied was "Table Setting and Service." All present were greatly interested. Mrs. Bruce Dickie will be hostess at the next meeting, to be held November 21.

Straining for a feature story, a London newspaper queried a number of celebrities past fifty years of age, asking whether they could bend over and touch their toes. Most of them couldn't. When a reporter asked George Bernard Shaw over the telephone whether he could touch his toes, the famed dramatist shouted: "Is that what you've called me up for? Well, God forgive you."

A husband's first idea is to protect his wife but it slowly dawns on him that he'll be doing well if he protects himself.

NOTICE

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION
NOTICE is hereby given to the Qualified Electors that at the time and place herein mentioned, a SPECIAL ELECTION in each of the several wards and precincts of the County of Oakland, Michigan, to-wit: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, A. D. 1928. There will be submitted at said election, three proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Michigan as follows:

Relative to fixing legislative territory and districts.
Amendment to Section 3 of Article V of the Constitution relative to fixing legislative territory and districts.
Sec. 3. The house of representatives shall consist of not less than sixty-four nor more than ninety members. Representatives shall be chosen for two years and by single districts, which shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants and contiguous territory; but no township or city shall be divided in the formation of a representative district, except that when a township or city contains territory in more than one county or line, it may be divided at the county line. And provided, that in the case of cities heretofore organized or created or territory heretofore attached to any city, the territory thereof shall remain until the next apportionment. When any township shall contain a population which entitles to more than one representative, then such township or city shall elect a general ticket, the number of representative to which it is entitled. Each county with such territory as may be attached thereto, shall be entitled to a separate representative when it has attained a population equal to a moiety of the ratio of representation. In every county entitled to more than one representative, the board of supervisors shall assemble at such time and place as shall be prescribed by law, divide the same into representative districts equal to the number of representatives to which such county is entitled by law, and shall cause to be filed in the office of the secretary of state and clerk of such county a description of such representative districts, specifying the number of each district and the population thereof according to the last preceding enumeration.

Relative to acquiring land and property for boulevards, streets and alleys.
*Sec. 5. In exercising the powers of eminent domain and in taking the fee of land and property that is needed for the acquiring, opening and widening of boulevards, streets and alleys, the acquisition of the land to be covered by the proposed improvement but may take such other land and property adjacent to the proposed improvement, as may be appropriate to secure the greatest degree of public advantage from such improvement. After so much of the land and property has been appropriated for any such needed public purpose, the remainder may be sold or leased with or without such restrictions as may be appropriate to the improvement made. Bonds may be issued to supply the funds to pay in whole or in part for the property so appropriated, but such bonds shall be a lien only on the property acquired and they shall not be included in any limitation of bonded indebtedness of such municipality.

Relative to Compensation of members of the legislature.
Amendment to Section 9 of Article V of the Constitution relative to compensation of members of the legislature.

*Sec. 9. The compensation of the members of the legislature shall be three dollars per diem during the term for which they are elected, and they shall receive no further compensation than as specified in this section for service when the legislature is convened in extra session. Members shall be entitled to ten cents per mile and no more for one round trip to such regular assembly session of the legislature by the usually traveled route. Each member shall be entitled to one copy of the laws, journals and documents of the legislature of which he is a member, but shall not receive, at the expense of the State, books, newspapers or quantities of office not expressly authorized by this constitution.

Notice is hereby given, That the place of holding said Election in the Township of Farmington (Precinct No. 1) will be at (Bond School), (Precinct No. 2) will be at (Elsie Young Beauty Parlor), and the polls of said election will be open at 7:00 o'clock a. m., and will remain open until 10:00 o'clock p. m. of said day of election, unless the Board of Election Inspectors shall in their discretion adjourn the polls at 12 o'clock noon on the day of election.
WILLIAM CAMPBELL,
Clerk of said Township,
Dated Oct. 8, A. D. 1928.
