As a church we purpose to OBEY GOD, as revealed in the Bible, even though the (impious world looks upon our people as odd. The basic challenge facing every church is "ARE YOU WILLING TO OBEY ALL THAT YOU ALREADY KNOW THE BIBLE CLEARLY TEACHES?" The goal is to receive and handle surrender to God's revealed will. We urge you to walk with us!

"We were looking for a church for the wedding and found a religion."

"I grew up in a Protestant family. Oscar came from an Orthodox Jewish background. We were in college when he popped the question: "When I told my father, he was very understanding, but she and I were well aware of the inherent problems of an interfaith marriage."
"Especially back then... forty-nine years ago!"
"That was when we were first exposed to Unitarian Universalism. We went to a service, we liked it."
"And we kept going back. I think it was the feeling of acceptance, the freedom to believe what we wanted to believe."
"It was a community of like-minded people from all different backgrounds."
"We could take my beliefs, Oscar's beliefs, put them together, and emerge with something uniquely our own."
"And that's what marriage is all about."
