Sorry about the delay. We're making them as slowly as we can.

Demand for the new Volkswagen Golf and Jetta has been so great it's almost overwhelming. In fact, in just 12 months, the Golf has become the best-selling car in the world. If we hurried things up to keep up with demand, maybe we'd be making cars. But we wouldn't be making Volkswagens. But now they're here. And you can see the pains-taking care and obsessive attention to detail everywhere you look, touch and kick. And to thank you for waiting, the new Golf and Jetta have a special lease rate and the longest limited powertrain warranty in the business: 10 years or 100,000 miles.

See your Volkswagen retailer for details and a test drive.

It would be a good idea to do it today. Because due to the way we make Volkswagens, supplies are naturally limited.

The most loved cars in the world.
