the first half. The run featured four cutbacks by Granger, who was never touched, and ended with Granger sprinting 50 yards down the sideline.

After trading turnovers to begin the second half, Canton put together another impressive drive. The drive was aided by a roughing-the-kicker call on a missed field goal attempt. Two plays later, Gardner high stepped into the end zone from 11 yards to cut the Harrison lead to 21-14.

The Hawks came right back to make it 28-14 on a 4-yard burst by Granger. Canton rallied once more by driving 65 yards in 13 plays and scoring on a 6-yard run around right end by Ryan Ostach. The score was 28-21 with 4:00 remaining.

The Chiefs opted to kick the ball off to Harrison instead of attempting an on-side kick. Fliss' kick rolled out-of-bounds and Harrison was able to run out the clock.

"I knew Canton was going to be tough but I didn't think they would be that effective moving the ball on the ground against us," Herrington said. "It feels good to beat them knowing they had a lot of players back from last year's team. We showed some good poise on offense, and whenever they scored, we came back and scored."

In what Walled Lake Central football coach Darrell Harper called "the craziest game I've ever been in", the Vikings ran only eight plays from scrimmage in the first half and scored three times on its way to a 34-13 homecoming victory over North Farmington.

The Vikings' first two touchdowns both came on 73-yard plays. In the first quarter, Ken Schiller tossed a 73-yard TD bomb to Chris Kourtakis. After the Raiders countered with a second-quarter touchdown, Central scored on a 73-yard run by Roger Wilson and a 23-yard pass from Schiller to Kourtakis. Schiller ran in a two-point conversion after the last TD for a 20-6 halftime lead.

North Farmington trimmed the lead to 20-13 after three quarters. In the final period, Wilson scored on a six-yard run and Dan Rester scored from four yards out. Schiller then passed to Randy Buchan for a two-point conversion, ending the scoring.

Wilson led Central's ground game, running 13 times for 160 yards. Kourtakis caught two passes, both for TDs, for 96 yards. Rester filled in well at tailback after Central lost its starter to injuries sustained the previous week. Rester also punted for the Vikings.

"The kids played hard after giving the last two games away," Harper said, referring to the 13 turnovers Central suffered in its last three contests. Central didn't turn the ball over Friday. "That was the difference," Harper said.

Central is 3-3. The Raiders fall to 2-4.

The Vikings visit Livonia Stevenson Friday.

Terrell breaks record

SWIMMING

North Farmington diver Mandy Terrell scored a school-record 285.50 points Thursday, but Livonia Stevenson, the state's top-ranked Class A girls swim team, came away with a 123-63 victory at the Bentley Center.

Terrell broke her own mark of 257.00 in a dual against Stevenson's Jennifer Sabina, who had 231.10.

Stevenson, the state's top-ranked team in Class A, won its sixth-straight dual meet without a loss by winning nine of 12 events.

Freshman Anne Aristeo figured in four firsts for the Spartans.

Aristeo captured the 200-yard freestyle (1:56.07) and 100 butterfly (59.34). She also teamed up with Tina Caranicolas, Helene Dallas and Mandi Falk to win the 400 freestyle relay (3:47.75). The foursome of Aristeo, Kelly Carlisle, Gina Palmeri and Falk won the 200 freestyle relay (1:44.48).

North is 4-1 overall.

Mercy wins

Farmington Hills Mercy on Wednesday defeated Harper Woods Regina, 134-49, in a Catholic League Central Division meet at East Pointe High School.

Katie Scallen won the 500 freestyle in 5:41.50 and Andrea Hoeflein had a state-qualifying time in the 100 breast with a time of 1:10.44.

The Marlins are 3-2 overall.

Sopha gains state golf meet berth

Sophomore Brandon DiPaolo, who failed to make Redford Catholic Central's golf team last year, helped make CC's day on Friday at the Class A regional meet at Pontiac Country Club.

DiPaolo took second individually with a 4-over par 76, helping the Shamrocks gain third place with 327 strokes and a berth in the Class A state meet. North Farmington failed to qualify for the state meet but Raider Drew Sopha is going to Friday's state meet at Michigan State University's Forest Akers Golf Course after taking third place individually with a 78.

The top three teams earn a berth in Friday's state meet at Michigan State University's Forest Akers Golf Course.

CC edged Birmingham Brother Rice, the Catholic League champion who beat the Shamrocks twice in dual meets, for third place. The Warriors placed fourth with 330 strokes.

North Farmington was 11th at 360, Farmington Hills Harrison placed 12th (366) and Redford Union placed 16th (419).

All four of the scores CC used came from underclassmen. Sophomores Brian Karbelski and Chris Misiak each had 83s and junior Bob Beckman finished with 85.

"We have a good group of young kids and things look real good for the next couple of years," CC coach Phil Heyer said.

Bloomfield Hills Lahser took first place at the regional with 321 strokes and West Bloomfield was second at 326.

DiPaolo was on pace to win the regional but a triple bogey and bogey in his last four holes ruined an otherwise memorable afternoon.

His triple bogey came on a par-3.

"I hit my tee shot into the sand, got out of the sand but left the ball in the short grass," DiPaolo said. "I lost my head."

The 5-foot-6, 125-pound sophomore from Plymouth said he wasn't discouraged after failing to make CC's team last year with a 48 on the tryout day.

His idol is PGA player Mark Calcavecchia.

"I like his go-for-broke style," DiPaolo said.

Sopha was in first place at the turn with 34 but shot 44 on the back nine to slip to third place. The junior has shown steady improvement after a midseason slump.

"It's all patience, letting the game work itself out," said Sopha, who shot 86 at last year's regional. "I was in a slump in the middle of the year, broke out of it the last two tournaments and I'm going into the state confident."

At another Class A regional on Friday at Oak Pointe Golf Course in Brighton, Plymouth Salem had the best local finish, taking sixth place with 327 strokes. Ann Arbor Pioneer led with 306, followed by state qualifiers Brighton (316) and Howell (318).

Livonia Churchill, the Western Lakes Activities Association champ, was eighth (334), Livonia Stevenson 12th (344), Farmington 14th (352), Plymouth Canton 15th (358), Livonia Franklin 16th (359) and Westland John Glenn 19th (390).

Tail Waggers coming to town

TEN-PIN ALLEY

AL HARRISON

Has bowling gone to the dogs?

That questions is only a reminder that the annual Tail Waggers Bowl is returning Nov. 13 at Woodland Lanes in Livonia.

The theme, appropriate enough, is "Help Strike Out Cruelty to Animals." Proceeds will benefit the Michigan Humane Society Cruelty Investigation and Rescue Divisions.

Last year, the event raised $29,000 for the animals. The bowlers are asked to solicit donations from friends, family and co-workers. Prizes are awarded to the individuals who bring in the most donations.

There will also be a chance to win a raffle for a Royal Carribean four-day cruise for two. Two cruises will be given away — one at each location.

This is a 9-pin no-tap event, open to bowlers 18 years of age and older. All participants are required to pay a $13 entry fee. The fee includes three games of bowling, shoe rental, entry to an appreciation luncheon compliments of Burton Manor and entry in the mystery game contest to win prizes donated by sponsors.

Registration forms are available at the two bowling centers as well as the Michigan Humane Society's three shelters and the Paw Pourri gift shop. For more information, call Laura Zain at 261-3077.

The Michigan Humane Society is a non-profit organization serving animals since 1877, with three full-service shelters and charitable animals hospitals in Detroit, Westland and Rochester Hills.

■ Calling all bowlers to help find a cure for Cystic Fibrosis.

On Nov. 6 and 7, the following bowling centers will host the Bowl USA event to raise funds in the fight against the disease — the number one fatal genetic disease among children in the United States: Beech Lanes, Redford; Bel Aire Lanes, Farmington; Cloverlanes, Livonia; North Hill Lanes, Rochester; West Bloomfield Lanes, West Bloomfield and Westland Bowl, Westland.

For more information, please call the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at 524-2873.
