It was a day to remember at Spartan Stadium, just ask this guy

BRAD EMONS

Checking for fall football colors.

I was at Spartan Stadium on Saturday and it was evident to everyone that Michigan State played at an emotional peak against Michigan.

I thought the Michigan players handled the loss very well, especially Todd Collins afterwards in the interview tent.

Speaking of Michigan, it appears the trash talking and taunting epidemic has hit the Wolverines, too, especially Derrick Alexander and Shonte Peoples. I never saw Anthony Carter gloat after scoring a TD, and I surely would never see the great Randy Logan or Dave Brown rub it in.

Speaking of MSU, former Spartan center Ron Curl (1968-71) has a son Eric playing on the Livonia Stevenson football team. Ron Curl played for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Toronto Argonauts of the CFL, as well as Chicago and Shreveport of old the World Football League.

Michigan State football is not quite the same without John Miller and Todd Krumm in the secondary.

What ever happened to Borgess product and former MSU kicker Tom Birney?

Good to see Muddy Waters in the press box.

Mill Coleman caught only one pass, but it was a key one. He also handled all his catches easily on punts.

I'm sick and tired of people bashing Michigan's kicking game, namely Pete Elezovic. Let's face it, the offensive line is not so hot and either are the linebackers and defensive backs.

How does the Holiday Bowl sound?

Local hockey news

Chris Tancill has made the Dallas Stars, but was scratched from the lineup against the Red Wings in the season opener. If Tancill is sent down to the minors, his likely destination is Kalamazoo of the International Hockey League.

Did anyone notice Mark Beaufait scored the lone goal for the U.S. Olympic Team against the Red Wings in an exhibition game at Joe Louis Arena? Team USA went down 8-1.

Mike Modano is off to a fast start with the Stars. Wonder if he'll remain the subject of trade rumors.

If Al Iafrate hadn't gone the hockey route, I bet he'd be a starting linebacker in the NFL.

Mike Donnelly signed a contract with the Kings just before the regular season opened.

Whatever happened to Dennis Smith, Rob Tustian, Rich Kromm and Dave Feamster?

Prep pot pourri

Best bets to make the post-season football tournament: Westland John Glenn, Farmington Harrison, Redford Catholic Central and Livonia Stevenson.

Garden City and Wayne Memorial are longshots.

I'd like to see Ladywood's 6-foot-4 junior center Anne Poglits attack the basket more.

If Catholic Central is looking for non-league opponents next year, I have a suggestion.

Try Ben Davis, a large public school just outside of Indianapolis. They're a perennial power in Indiana 5-A (top enrollments) and can't find a league or opponents. They have to go to Chicago and Cincinnati because nobody will play them. Trivia question: Name Ben Davis' most famous football player? Answer: Morten Anderson.

Moral victory: Stevenson tying Birmingham-Detroit Country Day in soccer for the second straight year.

Country Day couldn't be happy with the deadlock. It's a team loaded with Olympic Development players from all over southeastern Michigan. It just goes to show that the best high school soccer in this state is still played in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

I've heard rumors that the Kensington Valley has made overtures to the WLAA about creating another super league. Just don't send me out to Howell for a basketball game in the dead of winter.

Best cheer I heard from the CC students during Sunday's Boys Bowl: "Rice-a-Roni, the San Francisco treat." Now that's original.
