full length symphony written for concert band using modern harmonies and orchestration, plus works by Debussy and Della Joio. The concert band is largely made up of OU students, but also includes alumni and selected players from the community.

Anderson is an active director and performer in the Detroit area.

All classes are recommended for OPA accounting and auditing requirements and for the Insti-tute of Management Accountants credit.

He has played trombone with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and Michigan Opera Theatre and has performed at the Fox and Fisher theatres. He served as assistant conductor and arranger for the U.S. Air Force Band and toured with the Glenn Miller Band and Doc Sewerenson and the Tonight Show Band.

Tickets for the concert are $6 general, $5 senior and $3 student and may be purchased through the MTD box office at (313) 370-3013. Group sales may be arranged through the box office. Special assistance for physically challenged people may be obtained by calling the box office in advance of the performance.

Anyone who attempts to donate at the Holiday Inn may enter a drawing for a one-night Holidome stay, redeemable until April 29. Offer is based on availability. In June, the Southeastern Michigan Blood Services Region awarded WRIF the "Buddies for Life" award for its exceptional support of the community blood worstly.
