

Talk back to your TV on live cable call-in shows

LARK SAMOUELIAN

Reporter Mary Linda Calderone shares with us some exciting television debuts.

Don't be a couch potato talk back to your TV. We have two special live call-in shows coming up this month on Channel 12.

Entering his third live programming season with a bang, John Akouri Live will be presenting Princess Madiha at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 4.

Princess Madiha will be speaking on her upcoming annual dance benefit. The event will take place on Saturday, Nov. 13 at the Fairlane Holiday Inn. Proceeds go to St. Jude's Childrens Hospital. A variety of traditional dance styles including Spanish Flamenco, Hawaiian Hula, African and Middle Eastern dancing will be performed.

To give John's viewing audience a sample of what is to come that night, Princess Madiha will bring with her special guest artist, Nawaj Al-Qamar and Susan Peeli, a choreographer of "Daughters of Peace" — a Middle Eastern Folk Dance Troupe.

So talk back to that TV — have some fun. The number for both shows on their respective dates will be 653-7300, ext. 251.
