Garden from page 1H

rooms.

Grant Constraints of the second secon

■ At the other end of the age spectrum, the club sponsors the gar-den therapy class for Farmington Hills Inn residents, which in-cludes sessions that focus on crafts made from natural materials. Farmington Hills Inn residents who participate make something, like a wreath, to take back to their garden walk in alternate years. There's such a variety of pro-grams almost anyone could find something of interest, Pool said. "We're looking for new mem-bers all the time," she said.

Toble chuckled and added "You don't have to graduate from Michigon State with a degree in horticulture to be a member."

The Farmington Garden Club meets at noon the first Monday of the month at the Farmington Community Center.

The Observer/ THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1993

(F)3H:

Pretty perennials: Farmington Garden Club members planted Ellie's Garden in Heritage Park

Cabaret benefits Hospice Services

The Western Wayne Hespice Foundation will present "Friday Night Live — A Gala Cabaret" Friday. Nov. 12, for the benefit of Hospice Services of Western Wayne County Inc. The gala evening will be a the Holdray Inn. 10 Mile and Grand River, Farmington Hills. It will start with a reception at 7:30 pm., followed by a buffet dinner at 8 and door prizes. After dinner, comedian Bruce Gerish will serve as master of ex-monies for a fun-filled variety show featuring talented local per-formers, directed by Pat Hutchi-son. Scheduled to appear in the show are Betsy Bromson. Nancy Delewsky Villeneuve, the Church-ill High School Show Choir and Schoolcraft College Vocal Jazz Ensemblo. Bronson is a member of the Michigan Opera Thatario's touring company. She has performed lead roles in opera Thatario's touring company. She has performed lead in television commercials and in-dustrial films. Delewaky Villeneuve has appeared as a featured soloist with the Livonia Symphony and in performances with the Theatre Guild of Livonia and Michigan Opera Thatare. According to Western Wayne dia the Christopher Ziomek, the event commermorates National Hospice Month, which promotes awareness of the work done by hospice organizations. It also will raise money to help Hospice Ser-vices expand programs which are offered free to patients and the community. Hospice Services was establish-ed in 1981 to offer compassionate, skilled home care to people facing incurable illness. Hospice offers supportive care, promotes quality of life and provides comfort and sentional healing for the patient and family members. "We provide services to pa-tients and their families regard-ters of their ability to pay," asid Maureen Butrico, acceutive direc-tor of Hospice Services. "While some costs for medication, nurs-ing and doctor visits are covered by the patient's medical insur-ance, some costs must be supplemented in other ways. The Westmented in other ways. The West-ern Wayne Hospice Foundation was created to fill the ongoing need to procure funds to meet pa-tient and family needs which are not reimbursable."

Not reimbursante. With 20 full-time staff mem-bers and more than 130 volun-teers, Hospice Services provides assistance to patients in western Wayne, southern Oakland and eastern Washtenaw counties. It also affers support to the patient's family and maintains contact with family members for 13 months after a patient dies. Ser-vices include adult grief relief support programs, mailings, tole-phone calls, visits and memorial services.

Dolls from page 1H

Dorothy Moss, a Southfield resi-dent, who has been dressing doils for Goodfellows for the past four dent, who has been dressing dolls for Goodfellows for the past four years. "I also did them many years ago as a child in school, and I continued afterwards," Moss said. "For some reason I stopped, and I just storted again. "I try to dress them by putting mysel in place of a little til get-ting a doll," Moss said. Altogether Moss believes ahe has dressed more than 200 dolls for Goodfellows. She brought some of her crea-tions to meetings during show and dell. One thing lead to anoth-group decided they wanted to help the needy youngsters, too. Linda Dins of West Bloomfield, Linda Fuytier of Royal Oak,

Sharon Waligors of Canton and Laura L'Esperance of Brighton liked the idea so much they took Laura L'Esperance of Brighton liked the idea so much they took it on as a project. Moss struck gold when she got Diaz interested. She spent hours-putting together an elaborate-wedding gown ensemble, a kilt, a handmade knitted sweater and a designer knit dress to name some of the more outstanding outlits. "The bride took about 12 "The bride took about 12 "The took about 12 "The two she most fun of all, because you can be more cre-ative." The dolls were supplied by Goodfellows volunteers Howard and Lill Camden of West Bloom field.

From first seconds to first kisses, Beaumont delivers on specialized care

When your baby is born, you want expert care. Beaumont, Royal Oak's nurses and doctors are leaders in their field.

For Diane Hamilton, the staff made the difference.

"We had unexpected complications at Nicole's birth. She was in Beaumont's Special Care Nursery for a week. What could have been a trying time really wasn't. She got a lot of attention there. The nurses were very professional and sensitive.

 Nicole showed some heart problems on Saturday, the pediatric cardiologist was called in, and by Sunday, we were assured that everything was okay. It was a relief to know he was there. **

Beaumont offers a full range of mother, baby and child care services. A special care nursery, a neonatal intensive care unit and a newly expanded pediatric intensive care unit are available if needed. A full range of specialists are there at a moment's notice, and for mom's comfort, we offer a 24-hour enidural service.

r,

Beaumont, Royal Oak - Michigan's most comprehensive obstetrical service in one convenient location.

We'd like to tell you more. Call us at 1-800-633-7377.

William Beaumont Hospital

۱