Detector did the job

Fire's tell-tale tracks: Farmington Hills firefighter Norb Leppanen surveys the damage at a house on Colgate in Farmington Hills. A fire, which started in the bathroom Nov. 2 at 12:09 p.m. caused $3,000 in damage to the house and $500 in damage to contents, but could have been worse. Thanks to a door-to-door effort by the department, the Jaycees and others to install working detectors where needed in the Grand River Homes subdivision, this house had two new detectors installed at no charge. It paid off. The homeowner heard one of the smoke detectors go off and escaped without serious injury. A cigarette is the suspected cause of the fire.
