Teens to face charges in traffic death

A teen driver and her passenger will be charged with negligent homicide in connection with an accident that took the life of a Farmington High School student in May.

Bridget Ann Fleet, 16, of Farmington, and Jason Scott Berlin, 16, of Farmington Hills, were issued petitions to answer the charges in Oakland County Juvenile Court. Negligent homicide is a two-year misdemeanor.

Fleet was driving a 1984 Oldsmobile north on Hunt Club south of 11 Mile at about 9 p.m. May 24 when the car swerved and James John Sawulski, 16, and Kenneth Andrew Johnson, 16, of Farmington, who were sitting on the back of the car, fell off. Both sustained head injuries.

Johnson was treated and released at Botsford Hospital. Sawulski was taken to Providence Hospital in Southfield where he died the next morning.

Life is full of challenges.

Choosing a doctor doesn't need to be one of them.

Nobody wants to wade through the Yellow Pages or spend all day on the phone trying to find a doctor. And finding the right doctor is too important for "one potato two potato..."
