Eats

Pizzas (AKA Moonpies) are topped with spicy meats, little fishes, veggies and tasty cheeses. You can order them as a side (mezza luna) or as your entire (fulla moon).

More than often ordering here can be more fun than actually eating. The Tortellini Jack-in-Johni (pumpkin tortellini covered in gorgonzola) always calls for at least a few giggles and waiters run out of breath when reciting the daily specials.

Gnocchi, fettuccini, chicken and seafood are all almsred and covered with one sauce or another. The marinara is out of this world. Subs are stuffed with eggplant, tuna and prosciutto. Breakfast La Luna is also top notch - eggs and pasta mixed together, spicy hot Italian sausage and corn meal polenta are just a few of the offerings.

A long list of Italian specialty coffees, sparkling waters and herbal tea are also on hand. Rich chocolate-infused desserts are unreal, and there's always the Italian ice of the day.

La Luna shoos for the month and makes it.
