

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

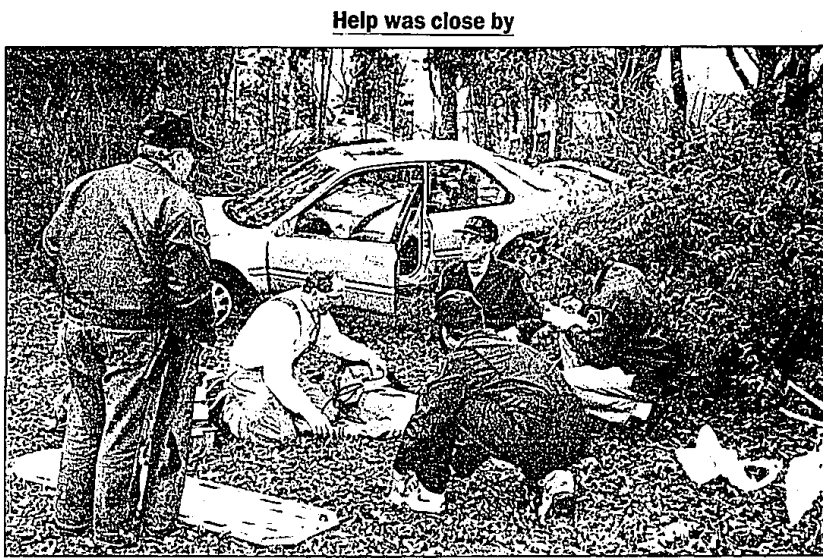

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

■ AUTO THEFT
A tan 1984 Olds Omega worth $1,500 was stolen from the Williamsburg Townhouses on 12 Mile in Farmington Hills Nov. 16.
A 1987 blue Pontiac worth $6,000 was taken from a residence on 10 Mile in Farmington Hills Nov. 15-17.
A woman's leather bomber jacket ($100), a bottle of Paloma Picasso perfume ($100), $6 in change and 20 cassettes ($150) were stolen from a red 1986 Pontiac Fiero parked at Blakney's during an attempted auto theft. The steering column was broken, causing $100 in damage.

■ BREAK-INS
Three car break-ins at the Bob Sellers dealership on Grand River in Farmington Hills Nov. 15-16 resulted in total damages of $4,500 and the theft of three car AM/FM cassette stereos worth a total of $1,200. The passenger door locks were punched on two 1994 Pontiac Grand Am's and the driver's side door lock was punched on a blue and green 1994 Pontiac Grand Am.
A doorwall was pried open at the Freedom Village Apartments on Freedom in Farmington Hills and a U.S. coin collection worth $1,000 was stolen Nov. 14-16.
Two bikes valued at $240 and $200 were stolen from the front of A&W in Crossroads Center Nov. 17. A boy between 15-16 wearing a black coat with a fur collar and a baseball cap on backwards was seen riding off with one of the bikes.

■ THEFT
A Westinghouse stove, refrigerator, washer and dryer worth a total of $500 were stolen from an apartment on McKinley in Farmington Hills Nov. 15-16.
Two Bose speakers ($400) were stolen from Paulson Audio and Video on 12 Mile in Farmington Hills Nov. 16.
A woman's ring ($1,800) and a ladies' watch ($100) were reported stolen from a jewelry box at a Vicary Street residence in Farmington sometime between Aug. 15 and Nov. 2.

■ FRAUD
Several checks were stolen from the bedroom of a residence on Geln Grove in Farmington Hills Nov. 1-16 and 12 of them were written for a total of $1,201 at several area businesses.
A Lord & Taylor credit card of a resident on Crest Forest in Farmington Hills came up with $1,750 in charges made in Miami, Fla. between Sept. 16 and Nov. 17.

Injured: Farmington Hills firefighters were close at hand when motorist Vicki Lieberman swerved to avoid another car on Nine Mile Road and ran off the road into a tree in front of Station 1 on Nine Mile west of Drake Nov. 13 at about 4:15 p.m. Firefighters on hand include (from left) Sgt. Richard Cray, firefighter Mike Kish, firefighter James Neufeld (back to camera), firefighter Thomas Mitchell and Sgt. David Chrisco administer first aid. Lieberman's seat belt was fastened and her airbag deployed. She was taken to Botsford Hospital. Her condition was unknown.

■ While the clerk was opening the register, the robber put his hand in his pocket as if he had a pistol and demanded money.

Crossroads Center in Farmington had its driver's door window smashed, causing $150 in damage.

■ ARMED ROBBERY
A man described as white, in his 40s, 5-foot-10, 150 pounds with black and gray wavy hair, a thin build, a mustache, beige jacket with dark sleeves, blue jeans and a baseball cap that had the word "Lumber" on it along with a telephone number, held up the Subway restaurant on 12 Mile at about 9:10 p.m. Nov. 17. The man ordered a sandwich and ate it at the restaurant. He then ordered a drink. While the clerk was opening the register, he put his hand in his pocket as if he had a pistol and demanded money. He got away with at least $800 in cash. A closed-circuit camera recorded the entire robbery and the Farmington Hills Police Department has a copy of the video available.

■ SHOPLIFTING
A 17-year-old Redford resident was ticketed for shoplifting after a store employee saw a man trying to conceal a shirt ($19.99) in the sleeve of his jacket at T.J. Maxx on Grand River in Farmington Nov. 16.

■ VANDALISM
The windshield of a white 1987 Ford parked on Vacri in Farmington Hills was broken Nov. 16-17 causing $500 in damage.
The driver's side window of a 1987 Jeep parked on Foxgrove in Farmington Hills was smashed Nov. 17 causing $200 in damage. A 1993 Dodge Shadow parked in front of Farmer Jack in the Hills wins award for Night Out

Farmington Hills has been honored for its first National Night Out program.
According to the National Association of Town Watch, the 1993 National Night Out event was the largest ever, involving 8,650 communities and 26.5 million people from all 50 states and U.S. territories and military bases worldwide.
The National Association of Town Watch selected the Farmington Hills project as one of 10 best in the Rookie of the Year category.
The projects, which highlighted crime prevention, were judged on their effectiveness and quality of their campaign, neighborhood participation, law enforcement involvement, media campaign, special events, promotion and creativity, and post-project reports.

■ The National Association of Town Watch selected the Farmington Hills project as one of 10 best in the Rookie of the Year category.
The Farmington Hills National Night Out project, organized and led by the police department's crime prevention section, featured many special events, activities and promotions.
The police department's campaign also received media response and support from the residential and business communities, the Farmington Hills Fire Department and area classic car owners.
With 50 percent of the city's Neighborhood Watch groups joining other residents to participate in special neighborhood activities, National Night Out became a symbol of crime and drug prevention solidarity citywide.
Along with the fun, camaraderie, new partnerships, and now a national award, the citizens of Farmington Hills also earned a special bonus when major crime in the community dropped 33 percent during the evening hours of National Night Out, Aug. 3.

Beyond Breast Cancer

This program is designed for women who have had breast cancer surgery, those who are facing such surgery or have been recently diagnosed with breast cancer.

Barbara Barile, product specialist and certified fitter, Fairlane Pharmacy Services, will speak on prosthetic devices. Georgie Eichler, of Livonia, breast cancer survivor, will discuss the emotional aspects of breast cancer. Sally Beshara, Classique women's apparel, accessories and wigs, will discuss cosmetic solutions to hair loss.

Thursday, December 2, 1993

7:00 p.m.

St. Mary Hospital Auditorium

36475 Five Mile Rd, Livonia
(Please use main entrance off Five Mile Rd.)

To register please call 591-2913

Free of charge • Refreshments served

St. Mary Hospital is affiliated with William Beaumont Hospital

41 LIVING DOLLS TAKE OVER LOCAL MALL

From the seven continents of the world...they have come to spread their message: celebrating the Holidays is an International pleasure!

Tel-Twelve Mall has invited 41 handcrafted animated international figures to spend the Holiday season in the mall. Shoppers will find representatives from Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Europe, Antarctica and Australia sharing their traditions.

Many of the figures will be nestled in vignettes indicative of their culture. A train setting will showcase children representing over 20 countries.

Children and adults alike will marvel at the colorful costumes worn by the international guests. It's a great opportunity to experience International history, traditions, and culture.

Parents may want to bring along a camera to photograph their children in front of the beautiful international display. How often will you have a chance to have your photo taken in front of an Eskimo...or beneath a flying carpet?

The international festivities step into high gear on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20 at 11:00a.m. as SANTA'S ARRIVAL is highlighted by international song and dance performances.

In addition to the events that make Holiday shopping at Tel-Twelve so much fun, there are several special conveniences at Tel-Twelve that make shopping easier. Tel-Twelve Mall Gift Certificates offer a whole mall of opportunity for the hard to shop for on your list. Valet parking, available November 24 through December 24, will allow you to maximize your shopping time at Tel-Twelve. And gift wrapping by the Southfield Lathrup Music Boosters, December 1 - December 24 will save you from those late night wrapping sessions.

Tel-Twelve Mall will add more time to the shopping day, offering extended Holiday Hours beginning November 20; 9:30a.m. to 9:30p.m. daily and 12:00 noon to 9:00p.m. Sunday.

Thanksgiving weekend hours are Friday 9:00a.m. to 10:00p.m. Saturday, 9:00a.m. to 10:00p.m., and Sunday 12:00 noon to 9:00p.m.

With its international display and customer conveniences, Tel-Twelve Mall is doing more to make the holiday season enjoyable for you!

Tel-Twelve

Telegraph at Twelve Mile, Southfield, 353-4111
Featuring Crowley's, Kmart, Montgomery Ward, MC Sporting Goods, Ruby Tuesday and 70 other fine stores.