The Art Of Dressing Up

Holiday Parties and fêtes are about to dot your calendar. And while they are loads of fun to attend, what to wear to this season of festivity can make a sane woman crazy. It need not be the case.

So consider this: While a black dress is a staple of dressing up, it can be of an unexpected fabric. Why not sheer black georgette with a tulip cut vest trimmed in lurex? Or a black velvet dress with a bit of stretch for the perfect fit. Black velvet pants with a long sleeve velvet peplum top will give you chic and comfort. Or cream silk organza beaded and fitted with a matching camisole. These are special fashions selected with you in mind.

Fortunately this collection of dress up, dressy and black tie attire is also available in one place. Along with fragrance, evening bags and the finishing touch of fashion jewelry. Dressing up is easy when you know just where to go.
