

Superintendent choice expected Tuesday night

The Farmington Board of Education is expected to name a new superintendent of schools during a special meeting beginning at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 14, at the Lewis Schulman Administration Building, 32500 Shiawassee Road, Farmington.

The appointment is the only item of substance on the agenda of the meeting which will not be tabled.

Two southeast Michigan school superintendents are in the running for the position. They are Thomas Shorkey of the East China Schools near Marine City and C. Robert Maxfield of the Berkley Schools.

The winner will replace Michael Flanagan, who resigned to head up the Wayne County Regional Educational Service Agency. Both Maxfield and Shorkey are from out-of-formula (very little state aid) districts, and each worked his way up through his respective school system.

Maxfield has been superintendent of Berkley since 1988. With the exception of a six-year stint as principal of Clawson High, he has been with the Berkley District since 1973.

From 1974 to present, Shorkey has served as teacher, assistant principal, assistant superintendent and superintendent in the East China District. He's been school chief since 1989.

The Farmington Board of Education last week named Clifford Scherer, who retired about 10 years ago from the superintendent of the Huron Valley Schools, as interim superintendent.

Scherer will serve until Maxfield or Scherer can take over.

Below are highlights from the agendas of meetings this week. All meetings are open to the public.
