Have you tried Royal Valley Nero or Tzar Coffees?

Perhaps you have noticed a falling-off in the quality of your old coffee? For raw coffee has advanced, you know, as much as 7c a pound, and most dealers have to charge more money or give you poorer quality.

But a few of the large importers and among them the producers of ROYAL VALLEY Coffees foresaw this advance a long time ago, and by immense purchases and big contracts were able to protect themselves and their customers.

So that users of NERO or TZAR are getting, and will continue to get the same pure, strong-bodied coffee as of old, the same superb quality that has made ROYAL VALLEYS famous as the best coffees at the price sold in Michigan today.

Have better coffee! Try Nero at 25c or Tzar at 35c per pound.

Basket Ball Notes

Farmington I plays tonight (Friday) with Mack Parks in Farmington town hall. Everybody come and root for Farmington. We are informed that the center plays on this team plays with Spalding's champion team in Detroit. It promises to be the biggest game of the season for Farmington.

Tomorrow evening (Saturday) Farmington High plays Eastern High Reserves of Detroit in Farmington town hall. Come and help our plucky High's win tonight. This is the first season for the boys in the Farmington High's team, and considering the length of time the team has been organized they certainly play fine ball and deserve great praise.

It is not a bit too early to talk about and to lay plans for building operation during the coming spring and summer. As everybody knows, we need more modern dwellings at a reasonable rent. An honest and an economical man does not fancy the idea of giving half of his monthly wages for house rent. Our local capitalists ought to encourage such honest and industrious men by building houses that can be rented cheaply and yet be reasonably profitable to the investor.

We know some men and some women, some are well on in years and some are inexperienced in life's school, who have a most sane, unreasoning view of manual labor. They act and speak as if it was a disgrace, a crime and a sin to soil your hands with honest toil. Their brains must be as soft as their hands, if they cannot see the dignity and necessity of swinging the hammer or holding the plow.
