A .30-.30 caliber Marlin rifle ($750) and a steering wheel from a Lamborghini ($300) were stolen from a residence on Hugo in Farmington Hills between Nov. 19 to Dec. 15.

FIRES
Farmington Hills firefighters from station 2 put out a small fire in a 1985 Ford Escort on Orchard Lake at 10:14 p.m. Dec. 14. The fire was caused from the heat of the exhaust system in contact with the plastic console and papers. The car's owner told firefighters the exhaust system had fallen off a week earlier. Damage is estimated at $200.

Firefighters from station 2 also put out a fire in a parked 1988 Buick Lesabre on Northwestem at about 12:30 p.m. Dec. 14. The car had been parked for over an hour and there had been no recent problems or repairs. Damage is estimated at $8,000.

Destructive blaze

PETER HALLWYN

Arson suspected: Farmington Hills firefighters battled a fire that started early on Dec. 14 and destroyed this 1983 Rena Winnebago, valued at $10,000. The fire in the parking area of Adventure Motor Home on Northwestern Highway, which the department is investigating as an arson, started at 2 a.m. and was finally controlled at 4:30 a.m. by firefighters from Station 2. Along with the recreational vehicle, a 1986 Chevy Traveler was totally destroyed ($20,000), a 1972 Mercury ($1,000) was destroyed, a 1988 Mercury Sable sustained $2,000 in damage, a Detroit Edison utility pole sustained $3,000 in damage and the building sustained $2,500 in damage.
