Christin Glovak (four aces) to lead 14-10, but the Hawks scored the last six to win.

Harrison dominated the sec-ond, leading 8-0 and 14-2 after Lori Hubble served six-straight points, Erika Greene had a block and a kill for points during the run.

Perkins served consecutive aces in the third for a 7.0 Harrison lend, but North closed with 12-10 with a pair of aces by Amy Finkel.

Shortt had substituted for his starters but sent them back in an attempt to stop North's momentum. It almost worked as Ault served two accs for a 14-10 score, but the Ralders did what Harrison did in the second game and scored the last six points on Becky Thursam serves (two accs).

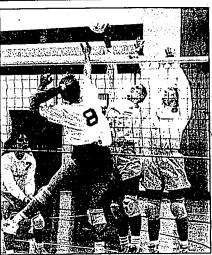

"In the third and fourth games, they did a nice job short-serving us, and we weren't reacting," Shortt said. "We were running away until we subbed. You take a chance when you do that, and North took advantage of it.

"They found the spot to serve, and the kids got a little frustrated with it. But they regrouped. When you're down a little and you see the other team struggle a bit (in the fourth) it picks you up again."

North's momentum carried into the fourth game, and the Raiders took a 7-0 lead on as many service points (five aces) by Heather Cornwell. Harrison made it 9-3 before Perkins rallied the Hawks.

Lubieniecki cited the passing of Thursam and Cornwell as well as their serving. Emily Opfermann had five kills in the first game and didn't miss a hit.

North setter/hitters Cooker Perkins and Keegan Keefover had six kills each, and Carrie and Na-talie Rejc also played well in the back row, according to Lubien-iecki.

Net result: North's Lee Nelson gets a blocking hand on a spike attempt by Harrison's Krista Snow.

Falcons start with win

Farmington had to go the distance Monday, but its Western Lakes Activities Association volleyball debut was a success.

The Falcons won the fifth game 16-9 over visiting North-ville. Farmington won the first and third games (4-10) and the Mustangs the second and fourth (8-9).

"This time we decided we weren't going to let her get away with anything," Shortt said. "When we lost, it wasn't anything she did, but we were intimidated by her size.

"We were afraid she was going to make the play, and the kids did it for her. She had only two blocks in the match, and we did more damage to her (by blocking her attacks)."

"I was happy with how we ram the offense, and we served really well," Formington coach Julie Ingalls said. "We probably missed seven serves all night, which is good for five games.

"You want to get started on the right foot (in league play) and let them see all their practice effort is paying off."
