

RECREATION NEWS

Each week, the recreation division of the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information regarding programs, call the recreation office at 473-9570. For city council agenda items, call the Newsline at 476-3838.

CHILI GOLF OPEN
If you love golf, you'll love this event. A nine-hole golf tournament will be Saturday, Jan. 29, at the San Marino Golf course. A shotgun starting format will be used beginning at 10 a.m. After completing a round of play, participants can enjoy chili and a hot dog. Fee is $15 per person with a registration deadline of Jan. 24. Awards based on registration.

SWIM LESSONS
Beginning Jan. 8 there will be a five-session swim lesson program at the Mercy Center pool. Classes from beginning preschool through advanced youth are available at various times Monday through Saturday. Pre-registration is now being accepted at the recreation office. Fee is $25 per person.

CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
Players for the Recreation Division's first cribbage tournament from 7-10 p.m. Friday, Jan. 21, are sought. A maximum of 32 players will be registered. The format will be "round robin" to determine the champion. Refreshments will be provided. Fee is $8 per person.

DADDY-DAUGHTER DANCE
A memorable evening is awaiting Dad and his daughter(s) on Friday, Feb. 11, or Saturday, Feb. 12, from 7-8:30 p.m. at the Mercy Center. This evening includes dancing, refreshments, corsage for daughter(s), boutonniere for Dad and a picture of the couple. Pre-registration is required as space is limited. Fee is $15 per couple and $7.50 per additional daughter.

BABY-SITTING SKILLS
A class has been designed for youth, grades 6 and up, to learn baby-sitting skills, first aid, child care, creative ideas, snacks and other pertinent information. Bring a doll to the class on Friday, Jan. 28, from 4:30-6 p.m. at the Mercy Center. Pre-registration fee of $5 per person is required.

WINTER BREAK DAY CAMPS
Children ages 6-8 can register for the Winter Break Day Camp that will be from Monday, Feb. 14, through Friday, Feb. 18, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Heritage Park Day Camp Building. Outdoor activities of sledding, skating, cross-country skiing as well as other activities are planned. Pre-registration fee of $85 per person is required. Maximum of 24 per camp.

Hills man gets White House internship

Farmington Hills' John V. Berry, a graduating senior majoring in political science at the University of Michigan-Dearborn, has been selected as an intern at the White House, starting in January.

Dearborn is doing something right in its political internship program," said political science Professor Helen M. Graves, director of the political internship program.

Berry has participated in two UM-Dearborn political internships with former U.S. Rep. Dennis Hertel and Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Richard Hathaway. He also worked as a law clerk in the Detroit Criminal Division of the state attorney general's office.

Graves and Hertel sponsored Berry's application for the White House internship.

At UM-Dearborn, Berry was a student government representative, member of Tau Kappa Epsilon international fraternity and member of Young Democrats. He made the dean's list three consecutive terms, winter 1992 through winter 1993.
