

Channel surfers tune into local cable shows

LARK SAMOUELIAN

CABLE CONNECTION
The word is out, people watch local television channels just about as frequently as they watch broadcast channels with the advent of the remote control.

Because of this reality, everyone is joining the television team. Taking time out to take a 12-hour television workshop brings the television channel to you. Upon completion of the classes, you may reach thousands of television viewers.

Groups that are recently so motivated include the Farmington Families in Action, the EDC Alliance, The Farmington Hills Chapter Business Network International and the Novi Optimists. Our workshops will accommodate daytime slots as well. Classes are available to you, the individual. You do not need to belong to a group. Please share this article with your family members, neighbor, club or church group and take the classes together.

As an individual or an organizational member, you have something to say or perform or create.

You will be viewed on Channel 12. You just have to do it. Everyone in a class rallies together to help one another produce shows.

If your group has 10 to 15 people, MetroVision will be happy to schedule an organizational workshop designed to meet your group's production needs. Call us today for a workshop brochure at 473-7265.

Think video. We're watching.
