Warriors down Irish in double overtime

Brother Rice basketball coach Frank Carrico wasn't trying to figure it out. He was simply happy to leave Harper Woods with this double-overtime road victory on Friday.

"The last couple games we had been playing well but came up short," said Carrico, whose team defeated Notre Dame by 36 points earlier in the season. "Tonight we didn't play well and won. This game is funny sometimes.

"We were very lucky to win," he said. "They even had a chance to win at the end, but they missed a shot."

The game was tied 38-all after regulation time. Neither team scored in the first overtime, and Rice scored the first three points of the second time — all on free throws (two by Rob Chrysler and another by John Taggart).

Chrysler finished as high scorer for Rice with 11 points. D.J. MacAloon added eight points. Joe Werner chipped in with 10 rebounds.

Brother Rice (6-5 overall, 2-4 Central Division) hosts Warren De La Salle on Tuesday.

■ C'VILLE 83, LUTHERAN WEST 50: John Kalaj scored a career-high 29 points Friday, leading host Livonia Clarenceville to a Metro Conference basketball victory over Detroit Lutheran West, 83-50.

The Trojans, who led 28-17 after one quarter and 46-30 at halftime, improved to 5-5 overall, 2-3 in the Metro. Lutheran West, which was outscored in each quarter, fell to 1-7 overall, 0-5 in the Metro.

Chris Mills scored 12 and Tim Kennedy 11 for Lutheran West.

Grid recruits select schools

Glenn tight end Mike Bint committed to Grand Valley, and linebacker Jeromey Cosby committed to Ferris State. Wednesday is the first day players can sign national letters of intent.

Glenn all-purpose player Matt Howton, who returned four punts and one kickoff for a touchdown last fall, is visiting Grand Valley this week.

Another Glenn player, 6-foot, 220-pound nose guard Jason Fuller, who carries a 4.0 grade point average, is still drawing interest from Ferris State but might consider walking on at Michigan State University, his mother said.

and senior Calvin Pruitt had 10 of his game-high 18 before halftime. They led the first-quarter charge with seven, seven and eight, respectively.

Senior Charles Bambenek also had 11 points, senior Aaron Weiss eight and junior Jeremy White seven. Pruitt pulled down 13 rebounds.

"Rick Smith had an exceptional game, and Calvin was Calvin," Teachman said. "Calvin is really playing good basketball. His intensity is infectious. He asks questions of himself about intensity and how good he can play, and it catches on."

Churchill outscored the Hawks 53-48 in the last three quarters, but the Chargers went the first 4½ minutes without a point and dug too big a hole too early in the game.

Jaime Williston had 14 points to lead Churchill, which shot 36 percent overall (23-63). Bill Morris followed with 10 and Jedd Thorderson eight. Jeff Anderson, Tim Wrublewski and Chad Uhlinger added five each.

"It was a combination of them shooting very well (in the first quarter) and us playing ole' defense," Churchill coach Tom Lang said. "I figure most of the 11 shots were layups, and we missed our first seven.

"We came off a game hitting 24 of 49. When this happens it's hard to know what to do. The kids never quit and played hard. I think we're all disappointed — me and the guys.

"We have no excuse, but we didn't practice Thursday and we weren't in school today. That might have had something to do with it. We weren't ready."

Harrison's shooting didn't fall off much after the first quarter. The Hawks made seven of 11 shots in the second and led 45-21 at halftime. Harrison shot 78 percent (18-23) in the first half.

"The first thing I told them at halftime was 'We were down 49-30 going into the last quarter against Canton and almost made it,'" said Teachman of a rally that ended in a 61-60 defeat. "And most of them were there (last year) for the 42-point comeback against Salem, so a lot of things can happen especially with the three-point shot in high school.

"When you're climbing the mountain and trying to make a better team, you don't want to stop. We want to keep climbing for the next game, because we have Salem and Northville next week."

Charles Bambenek, after playing his role and being the playmaker early in the game, scored nine points and Pruitt eight in the third period. The Hawks saw their shooting drop to 50 percent (7-14) but still led 64-35.

Teachman also lauded the play of his bench as all 12 players got in the game.

"You can't do it with just five guys," he said.
