

Cable TV breaking into news coverage

LARK SAMOUELIAN

Over the years, the momentum of television coverage in cable and broadcast has increased. At the beginning of our access shows were running about three weeks behind the breaking news.

In February 1994, we are on the cutting edge with thorough research material of social significance. Our two new shows have the latest scoop. Our talk shows give one's imagination on thought-provoking topics. Our documentaries are sensitive to today's relevant issues.

"The lifting of the economic embargo with Vietnam is no different. Dennis Confield and Ray Kazantsev went to Washington, D.C. in October for the Vietnam Commemoration and are editing the footage into TV shows."

Once again Dr. Philip Singer and Todd Whitman make available programming from the World Health Organization showing these stories from: Vietnam, Mozambique, Ghana and Finland.

We compliment and encourage our producers for questioning, creative, fascinating and interesting programming for our community channels.
