During the holidays the church provided dinner for more than 2,400 residents of northwest Detroit. The church also developed a job referral program, a clothing center, a medical clinic, a computer literacy program, a GED program, and provides tutoring services for high school students. Under Payne's leadership the church has put a strong emphasis on young people, offering recreational activities, summer trips, musical programs and establishing a fund to provide college scholarships.

Unemployment aid

ACTION is a group that provides support and practical help for people who are unemployed or changing careers. ACTION holds informal meetings with speakers at 7:30 p.m. the third Monday monthly in the parlor at Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Road, between 13 and 14 Mile roads.

Jeffrey Bogness, of Executive Resource Consultants, will talk about interviewing techniques on Monday, Feb. 21. For more information call 626-3620.

Going solo

Martin Liebman, formerly of PM Productions, will be carrying his own tune at his newly formed company, Martin Liebman Original Music, in Farmington Hills.

Liebman is known as one of the area's leading composers among advertising agencies as well as film, video and corporate producers.

Liebman recently completed the original score for the award-winning computer animated journey, "Robo Jr.," which aired on WDIV - Channel 4. He also completed full musical production and sound effects for the trailer, "Cyberia," a full-motion, CD-I interactive movie, which is a futuristic adventure where the viewer interacts with a computer by selecting the outcome of various situations.

Liebman's former company also recorded the music for City for Youth, a WTVS Channel 56 community and media partnership, now in its third year.

Party time

Women of North Farmington invite the public to the annual bowling and pizza party Feb. 17 at the Norwest Lanes, 29205 Northwest Highway. Call Carol Ayala, 363-7283 for more information.

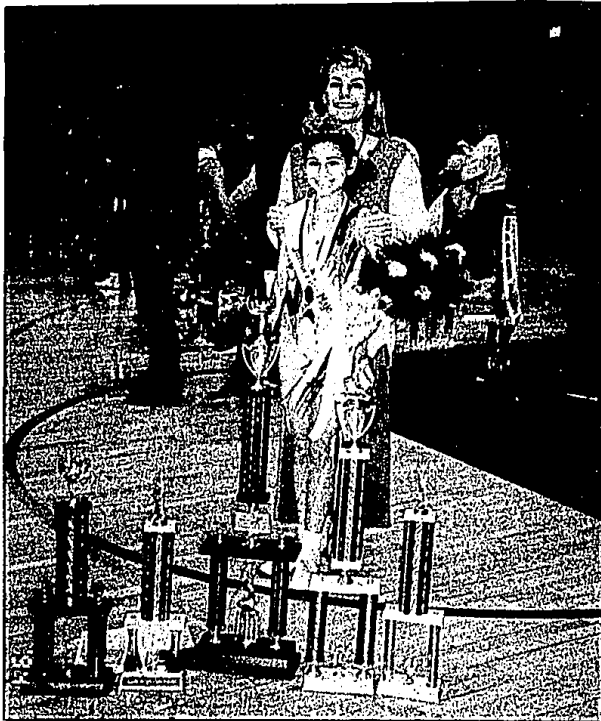

Garden clippings

"Snow and cold prevent local gardeners from outdoor work, but it does not keep them from enjoying the frosty tracery of bare branches and the elegant snow-laden pine trees, according to Gerry Tobin of the Farmington Garden Club.

"This is the time of year we learn of the new plants to enjoy next summer and the latest products available to ease the gardener's labor."

Farmington Garden Club members are combining efforts with the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan of the Detroit Metro area by participating in the District Standard Plant Show, a FGC member Rose Smitka was the 1993 winner of the Ann Gehrke award. This award is the highest award of excellence in the creative flower design.

She's a winner

On her way: Lisa Gutman of Farmington Hills takes time out with her coach Derek Skarul after recently competing in the Drum Majorettes of America's Mini National competition in Cleveland, Tenn. Gutman captured the title of Junior Miss Majorette of the Year for 1994. This title represents a combination of three different baton twirling events. Gutman has been twirling with Skarul for seven years and has won four national level competitions.
