ALL-AREA VOLLEYBALL

Observer squad well-represented

By Steve Kowalski

Talk about parity.
It was alive and well when it came time to select the members of the 1994 All-Observer girls volleyall team.
Of the 12 players on this year's first team, Il schools are represented. Only Redford Union had more than one player selected.

Most would agree this is the most representative All-Observer team in some resentative All-Observer team in some time.

Tom Testers, reaching the Class Ladywood was the most dominant, reaching the Class Ladywood. A quarterfinal before losing to Bay City Western. After Ladywood, any one of several teams could have made the claim of being second best in Observerland.
