HBO gets 'Indecent'; Ted plays prodigal son

BY JOHN CROOK

Critics booed, but moviegoers lined up in droves for "Indecent Proposal," a movie that asks one of the burning rhetorical questions of the day: Would a woman sleep with Robert Redford if he threw in a cool $1 million as well? Yeah, right. It airs Saturday, April 16, on HBO.

Ted Shackelford stars as a modern-day prodigal son in "Harvest for the Heart," a reworking of the biblical parable premiering Saturday on The Family Channel. Earlier that day, the channel presents the first of five new episodes of "Snowy River: The McGregor Saga."

Tony Award winner Jonathan Pryce ("Miss Saigon") stars with Theresa Russell in the thriller "Thicker Than Water," on Sunday, April 10, on A&E.

The assassination of Abraham Lincoln is the subject of "Black Easter," a special airing Sunday on The Discovery Channel.
