cy Center on 11 Mile in Farmington Hills was keyed April 18 ($1,000).
Yellow paint in a garbage bag was dropped from a balcony at the Williamsburg Townhouses on 12 Mile in Farmington Hills April 13-18 causing it to splatter on the concrete and back of the building ($500).

FOUND ROUND

A resident on Tredwell in Farmington Hills was cleaning his garage when he discovered a 60 mm mortar round in an open space between the garage and house April 17. Members of the U.S. Army's 75th Ordnance Detachment and Bomb Disposal Team along with Farmington Hills firefighters investigated but found that it was a practice round and not explosive.

BREAK-INS

The glass in the door at Wine Tasters on Nine Mile in Farmington Hills was broken ($300) April 18. Twenty packs of cigarettes were found on the floor by the entrance but it's undetermined if anything was stolen.

Store to connect with phone book recycling

This May, the Farmington Hills Partigiant, 29199 Orchard Lake Road, will recycle outdated telephone directories.
"Partigiant is a new business in Farmington Hills, and we are delighted to work with the city on this worthwhile project," said Janene Parker, director of store operations.

Phone books will be accepted May 1-30, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday-Friday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturdays and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays.
The old directories will be shredded and used for animal bedding or be sent to paper mills to be recycled into other paper products.

Hills church to host open house on Sunday

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Farmington Hills will host an open house at 6 p.m. Sunday, April 24, at the church's Meeting House, 33900 W. 13 Mile Road.
The event, held in honor of the International Year of the Family, will include a message by Russell M. Nelson of the church's Council of Twelve.

Additional presentations will be given on help for families, family values, family history research and journals.
