Sport park dedication Saturday See editorial, 20A

The Farmington Hills field of dreams is a reality. Founders Sports Park will be officially dedicated 11 a.m. Saturday, May 14.

A short program and ceremony will take place, followed by refreshments.

Baseball and softball games are planned Saturday, featuring teams from South Farmington and North Farmington/West Bloomfield Baseball Association teams. Legacy Tour '94 skills competition will also take place 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The park on Eight Mile, a half-mile east of Halsted Road, has four baseball/softball fields as well as three soccer fields.

The park's completion came through a joint effort by the city of Farmington Hills Department of Special Services as well as city council, the city administration, the Major Sports Complex (Sod Farm) Committee, the Department of Natural Resources, planning commission, parks and recreation commission and other city departments. Landscape architects also worked on the project.

The park is a former sod farm and is sometimes still called by that name — the Sod Farm.

3-part seminar is on money

A three-part seminar on "Successful Money Management," sponsored by Farmington Community Education, will be presented 6:30-10 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting May 24 and 26, at Farmington Community School.

Key concepts covered will include minimizing your taxes, maximizing your investment returns and providing a secure future. Everyone who attends will receive a workbook and home study materials.

The seminar is designed for people and couples of all ages and incomes. Instructors are professional financial planners from the Focus Financial Group. No products or services will be promoted or offered during the seminar.

A $49 fee covers the cost of instruction for an individual and spouse or guest. There is a $25 materials fee payable to the instructor at the start of the course.

To register or for information, call 489-3333.
