PARTY ON
The "Beach Bash" returns to Harrison High Sunday, June 5, when parents of the senior class host an all-night post graduation party. Doors open at 9:30 p.m. There will be no admittance after 11:30 p.m. and no one leaving the party will be readmitted. Entertainment includes music videos, Sumo wrestling, jousting, handwriting analysis, swimming and blackjack. Food will be donated by local merchants and parents. The swimming pool will be open. An auction caps the indoor activities. Donations of money, gifts and food from area merchants and friends of Harrison. High make the bash possible. To donate, call Dorothy Parker at 474-8365.

UNION GENEROSITY
The Farmington Education Association, which represents 750 public school teachers in the Farmington Public Schools, has awarded scholarships to three high school students. Eunice Lee of Farmington High, Jennifer Luskia of North Farmington and David Schneider of Harrison received $1,000 each in scholarships. Money for three scholarships came from voluntary contributions made by the teaching staff.

FORENSICS FEAT
North Farmington freshman Josh Klemme won the state championship in informative speaking at the state final forensic tournament May 6-7 at Western Michigan University. Another North Farmington freshman, Emily Wilson, advanced to the semi-final round of the competition in poetry interpretation, placing in the top 12 in the state. Klemme and Wilson qualified for the state final by succeeding at the district and regional tournaments.

PRESIDENTIAL ATTENTION
Harrison High senior Kimberly Rodak has received Albion College's Presidential Recognition Award. The award is a scholarship given to students who are in the top 5 percent of their high school graduating class, have a high school grade point average of a 3.9-4.0, and a composite ACT score of 20 or a composite SAT score of 1,200. Preference is given to National Merit Scholarship semifinalists who meet these guidelines.

BRONZE STAR
Gill Elementary teacher John

Witkowski and his physical education program have been awarded the Bronze Star Recognition in the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports Recognition Award program. The Governor's Council Physical Education Recognition Award is designed to recognize exemplary teachers and programs, promote the importance of physical education and provide a way in which physical education programs can be improved.
