

Shamrocks rock Eagles, 14-4

"It was a bad day for this late in May," Redford Thurston baseball coach Emil Majeski said Thursday after watching Redford Catholic Central mow the Eagles 14-4 in six innings at CC.

Majeski was talking about the weather, which went from balmy earlier in the week to temperatures hovering in the 50s with wind gusts reaching 20 miles per hour.

But he might as well have been talking about the way the Eagles performed, committing five errors and walking eight CC batters. CC's senior right-hander Andy Kummer allowed two home runs over the fence but scattered only six hits with 10 strikeouts and two walks. He is 7-2 overall.

CC, 19-5 overall, is in the midst of a busy week. The Shamrocks, who played two games in the Madonna Tournament on Sunday, host Dearborn today in the Class A district and meet Dearborn Division Child for the Catholic League championship at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at Tiger Stadium. Senior left-hander Dave Susalla will pitch Wednesday's game.

Kummer pitched well today and Susalla has pitched good all year. CC coach John Salter said.

'We just didn't make the defensive plays.'

Emil Majeski

"If you've got two guys who are pretty good, you've got a chance. It also helps to have (second baseman) Mike Bruseau back (from a dislocated shoulder) and (third baseman) Greg Rogers starting to hit better and work his way into the lineup."

Lance had some control problems and also allowed a loop single down the right field line and a high-hopper up the middle by Dave Susalla that went for a two-run single to give CC an 8-3 lead after four innings. CC added three runs in the fifth and three more in the sixth.

The Eagles, who play Livonia Franklin in a non-league game Tuesday at Livonia's Ford Field, fell to 17-5 overall.

"We just didn't make the defensive plays again and when you play a good ballclub and don't make the plays, you lose," Majeski said. "They're a quality ballclub."

Kummer had command most of the way but allowed a two-run home run in the second inning to Thurston catcher Joe Niestroy and a solo homer to Lance in the fifth. Dave Head and Niestroy had two hits each to lead Thurston.

Lance struck out and fled out to right field in his first two at-bats and CC coach John Salter knew Lance would be a tough out his third trip to the plate. Lance's homer sailed way over the fence in left-center at CC's new field.

"We got him out the first two times and I told my assistant coach (Bill Lis), 'He's going to hit it hard this time,'" Salter said. "That's the hardest ball I've seen hit this year. It went into the woods behind the fence about 400 feet away."

The Shamrocks were led by sophomore shortstop Chris Misiak, who was 3-for-4 with a triple and three RBI. Rogers went 3-3 with a run scored and two RBI and catcher Juan Sanchez had a double and scored twice.

Good defense: Sharp fielding like that by Harrison third baseman Amy Geary helped Erin LaCrosse pitch a one-hitter.

Farmington High has won WLAA girls track and soccer titles since I've been on the scene, but such successes have been few in those 74 years.

As Teachman points out, Harrison is a small school attempting to field teams in all spring sports in a big-school league, and Farmington and North Farmington aren't that much bigger.

It's for those reasons and the many past defeats the Harrison softball program has endured that it's so nice to see the Hawks winning now. That Farmington is home to the WLAA softball champion and not Canton, Westland or Livonia is truly a refreshing change.

That was part of the joy of covering the WLAA championship

They didn't give up; they acted like class athletes and played hard to the end."

Harrison led 1-0 in the first inning when Schwalm hit a leadoff single and later scored on Amanda Ault's grounder.

It was the second inning, when the Hawks scored six times on five hits and two errors, that won the game.

With Holly Foster and Kathy Schneider on base, Schwalm smashed a two-out homer (her first of the year) to start the rally.

"We merited them (14-4 in the regular season), but we didn't want to be too confident," said

'I was hoping it wouldn't be a close play, because I didn't think I was running very fast.'

Stephanie Schwalm

Schwalm, who had two hits. "We started getting runs and that helped our confidence; we knew we could do it then."

Consecutive singles by Lori Hubble and Ault and a throwing error made it 5-0, and Jenny Myslinski, who was 3-for-3, followed with a two-run homer (her fifth).

"The turning point was the bloop single by Lori," Teachman said. "Without that, Amanda and Jenny don't get up and we don't score any more. It's a 4-0 and, in my book, 4-0 is still a game. I always want that fifth run."

"At that point, we said, 'We have control of this game, and you're going to have a heckuva time getting it from us.'"

Allison DeShane replaced Central starter Jennifer O'Donnell after two innings and shut down the Hawks over the next four.

DeShane allowed only one hit and one walk.

"I have to credit Glennie for bringing in the slower pitcher, because we were out front on our toes and hitting the ball on the end of the bat the rest of the game," Teachman said.

"He was giving his girls a chance to get back in the game and, if Erin hadn't shut them down, they would have. That was a great coaching move on his part."

"It's and that we lost, but we played the best we could under the circumstances," Glennie said. "Anytime you allow only one hit you're doing a good job. That was the key — and once we got in a hole it was tough to climb out."

Tom Wakefield pitched seven strong innings Wednesday, lifting Westland Federation to a season-opening 4-2 win over defending Livonia Collegiate Baseball League champion Hines Park Lincoln-Mercy in a game played at Ford Field.

Wakefield, a right-hander from Spring Arbor College, struck out seven, walked one and allowed just five hits. He was 10-3 this spring for Spring Arbor and led NAIA District 33 in earned run average.

Hines Park starter Craig Benedict (Plymouth Canton), a freshman from Madonna University, suffered the loss.

James Gillespie (Albion) keyed a three-run second inning for Westland with a two-run single. Catcher Mark Mesurier (Central
