Mini Prix to rev up on Aug. 14

Remember that Mini Prix, a race for go-carts that was supposed to wind its way through the streets of downtown Farmington? Well, the race is still on, but the date has been moved ahead to Sunday, Aug. 14, because it fits better into the plans of the sponsoring FM radio station, WOMC.

People looking forward to the event should check The Farmington Observer and listen to WOMC (104.3) in August for information on times and other activities.

In addition to the go-cart races, a classic car show and sidewalk sales are planned, said an official from the Farmington Downtown Development Authority.

There are a limited number of corporate sponsorships for the race available. Representatives of interested companies should call Gelman & Grant at 616-4345 during normal business hours.
