England's Oldest School.

A contriversy has arisen in England as, to which school has the right to ciding greatest age. There are two schools which were founded in the early part of the seventh century—the King's school, Rochester, and the King's school, Canterbury. Justus, on his appointment to the see of Rochester in 604, made provisiof for a school in connection with the cathedral. Augustine (established the Canterbury school about the same time. St. Peter's at york dates back to the eleventh century.
