master. He's the type of kid who makes everything worthwhile."

Jason Granger, 100 dash, Harrison: Granger was a state qualifier, placed third at the regional, was second in Oakland County and won the WAAA championship. The sophomore ran 10.6 — the fastest area time — in three of those meets. He also ran the 200 and relays.

"Jason has really dedicated himself to being a top sprinter," Reed said. "While extremely fast, he wins because he works consistently hard. Talent alone will not bring the type of success Jason experienced this year."

Gil Chavez, 200 dash, Harrison: Chavez was the Farmington city champion, finished second in the WAAA and placed fifth in the regional. His best time of 23 seconds was just one tenth behind that of teammate Jason Granger and Redford Union's Tom Kessel, both of whom made the all-area team in other events. The junior also ran 11.3 in the 100, went 20-10 in the long jump and is a valuable member of the sprint relays.

"Gil is an outstanding all-around track athlete," Reed said. "He is directly responsible for the Harrison team success this year. He was willing to do whatever was necessary for the team to succeed putting personal achievements second."

Adam Bakowski, 400 dash, Salem: Bakowski was the WAAA champion, was first at the Mangrove Meet and placed third at the regional. The senior had the best time in the 400 at 1:03.3.

"Adam worked hard all winter to get ready for this season, and it showed in his finishes," Salem coach Geoff Baker said.

Bakowski also was the anchorman on the 800 relay and 1,600 relays, and he received the scholar-athlete award from the WAAA.

Tom Kessel, 800 run, Redford Union: Kessel won the regional championship and ran the best area time of 1:57.2 at that meet. The junior is one of the most versatile Osoverland athletes and is able to run anything from the 100 to the 1,600.

He was ninth in the state in the 800 and second in the Mega Conference in the 400. Kessel also participated in the 800 relay and carries a 3.5 grade point. Mid-American Conference schools already have shown great interest in him.

"He's a real team-oriented kid," RU coach Keith Holder said. "He helps the younger runners and encourages them. He's just a great, great kid."

Bred Polkinghorne, 1,600 run, Lutheran Westland: The sophomore was fifth in the Class C meet and was the regional champion. He had the best area time at 4:25.7. Polkinghorne also won Metro Conference and regional titles in the 3,200 run and finished eighth in the state. At the Class C championships, he ran 4:26.4 in the 1,600 and 9:48.1 in the 3,200.

"Brad became a racer this year and not just a runner of fast times," Lutheran Westland coach Mike Unger said. "Even though he is one of the best athletes on the team, he is very humble in view of his accomplishments."

Mark Leo, 3,200 run, Redford CC: The senior ran 9:40.9 — the fastest time among area runners in this event — when placing fourth at the regional. He was fourth in the Catholic League meet. Leo has been All City the last two years and All Catholic the last three. He is a two-time All-Osoverland runner in cross country.

"Mark was our captain and epitomizes what a leader should be," Magni said. "That was true not only in races but also during practices when he led the other runners through his example of hard work and dedication."

400 relay, Harrison (Ehsan Allos, Scott Gurke, Gil Chavez, Jason Granger): The Hawks were undefeated against area competition, first in the WAAA and Osoverland meets, second at the regional, third in Oakland County and ninth in the state. Their best time of 1:30.3 was a school record and the best in the area. All but Granger are juniors.

"All of these athletes are four-event runners and never ran the 400-meter relay rested," Reed said. "They probably could have run faster."

800 relay, Harrison (Ehsan Allos, Kevin Bryant, Gil Chavez, Jason Granger): The Hawks were undefeated against area competition, first in the WAAA and Osoverland meets, second at the regional, third in Oakland County and ninth in the state. Their best time of 1:30.3 was a school record and the best in the area. All but Granger are juniors.

"They are truly the most dominant relay team ever at Harrison," Reed said. "They were a pleasure to watch. All return next year and look forward to improving their time and state placement. Again, all are four-event runners and never ran a rested 800 relay."

1,600 relay, Salem (Russ Polcyn, Jason Barylski, Brian Herc, Adam Bakowski): The Rocks set a school record and had the best area time at 8:05.8. They won the WAAA title, placed first at the Osoverland and Tiger Relays and were second in the regional and Elks Relays. Polcyn and Stickney are seniors. Karmann and McDonald are juniors.

"Our distance team dominated this season," Baker said. "They accomplished everything they set out to do."

3,200 relay, Salem (Russ Polcyn, Dave Karmann, Andy McDonald, Josh Stickney): The Rocks set a school record and had the best area time at 8:05.8. They won the WAAA title, placed first at the Osoverland and Tiger Relays and were second in the regional and Elks Relays. Polcyn and Stickney are seniors. Karmann and McDonald are juniors.
