KEEP OUR PLANET CLEAN; WE WON'T GET ANOTHER ONE

Seen at the entrance to a campground along a highway in a beautiful forest area was a huge trash barrel, which was less than half full. On the ground all around it in a radius of four feet was an array of bottles, cans, paper cups, etc., thrown there by people too lazy to walk a few steps to the container.
While this in itself was not an ecological disaster, it did symbolize the thoughtlessness ingrained in our modern culture and usually passed along to our children. Equally offensive is the sight of our roads and highways lined with such litter, tossed out of car windows.
We should make a trip to our House of Worship to remind us that God gave us this beautiful earth on which to live, and that we should try to keep it that way.
"When man destroys the life and beauty of nature, there is outrage."
— George M. Trevelyan
"Wasting and destruction are in their paths."
— Isaiah 57:7
