

Church hosts light opera concert

Nardin Park United Methodist Church will open their 1994-5 Music Series 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 13 with "Ayreclassic," an outstanding quartet of singers performing light opera and musical theater selections.

The program will include works from "Die Fledermaus," "Magic Flute," "Madame Butterfly," "Bells are Ringing," "Les Miserables," "Phantom of the Opera," and "West Side Story."

There is no charge, and a light reception follows in the church fellowship hall. Nardin Park is at 29837 W. 11 Mile Road (just west of Middlebelt in Farmington Hills). For more information, call (810) 476-8860.

"Ayreclassic" features soprano Maria Cimarelli, mezzo-soprano Barbara Wiltzie Youngerman, tenor Paul Wiltzie, and lyric baritone Lawrence Formosa.

All have an extensive background in operatic, concert and musical theater performance and individually have received many awards.

Wagner's vocal experience runs the gamut from jazz to musical theater to light opera, and has cabaret shows, recordings and radio broadcasts to her credit. Her solo performance of "Birdland" brought her top honors in a regional "Star Search" competition.

Pianist Richard Ridenour has captivated audiences with classical, popular and ragtime music. The two have collaborated on an album, "I Love a Piano."

Talented duo: Richard Ridenour and Kathy Wagner will perform Nov. 16 at a recital presented by Schoolcraft College's Music Club.

Violins go visiting

Italy's most promising violin makers Ardoli, Goh, Tadioli and Speranza will be participating in the Lake and Wilson Fine Violins First Autumn Exposition and Sale of Classic Instruments by Italian Makers Nov. 14-17 at Lake and Wilson Fine Violins in Adams Square at 725 S. Adams between 14 and 15 Mile Roads, Birmingham. Hours are 1-8 p.m. Nov. 14-16, and 1-6 p.m. Nov. 17. Italian delicacies will be served throughout all open houses.

A concert finale will be held 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 17, featuring the Vinewood Quartet performing pieces from Haydn and Mendelssohn played on the visiting makers' instruments. The concert will be held at the Mercy High School Little Theatre, (11 Mile at Middlebelt in Farmington) with proceeds going toward the school's string program. There will be an afterglow after the concert. Call (810) 258-1125 for more information.
