Arete Awards to honor courageous athletes

BY JEFF PLASS

ABC Sports' Jack Whitaker and others honor courageous athletes who have faced adversity in the fifth annual Arete Awards for Courage in Sports Sunday, Dec. 24 on ESPN.

Some of the guests include Chicago White Sox's Frank Thomas, NBC Sports' Ahmad Rashad and former Olympic Dream Team coach Chuck Daly, Henry Aaron and potential Arete Award winner Monica Seles.

Whitaker summarizes the concept behind the program: "The athletes honored have exhibited great courage in pursuit of their goals. They have known no limits, because they refuse to acknowledge limitations. Their triumphs will energize your spirit."

Last year's Arete Awards recipients include: Justin Helstein (Junior Division), a 17-year old hockey player who suffered near-fatal head injuries; Pittsburgh Penguins' star Mario Lemieux (Professional), who battled Hodgkin's disease; and Hank Dekker (Senior), the first blind person ever to sail from San Francisco to Hawaii.

The special's co-founder and event chairman, CBS Golf analyst Ken Venturi, says award winners reflect the concept of Arete - the ancient Greek term for "the pinnacle of human performance in its purist form: the pursuit of excellence through perseverance, goodness, valor, nobility and virtue."

HIGHLIGHTS

Mickey Mouse, Disney's famous rodent, leads an all-star cast of animated animals in Mickey's Christmas Carol, based on Charles Dickens' acclaimed tale. It airs Thursday, Dec. 22, on CBS.

The well-known tale of Ebenezer Scrooge is seen in a different light through the eyes of Disney. Mickey stars as Bob Cratchit, the overworked and underpaid employee of Scrooge.

Other cartoon favorites featured in this production include Goofy, Jiminy Cricket and Donald Duck.
