Local scholarship pageant applications due March 15

Applications for the 1995-96 Miss Farmington/Farmington Hills Scholarship Pageant are now being taken.

Deadline to enter this year's pageant is March 15. Applications may be picked up at the Chamber of Commerce, 33000 Thomas in Farmington, or by calling pageant headquarters at 471-9042 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Megan Kate Smith, the reigning Miss Farmington/Farmington Hills, has had a busy year that has included speaking to local business groups, a fashion show, auto shows in Florida, Pennsylvania and New York, meeting the present Miss America Heather Whitestone and sharing her musical talent with the residents of Grand River Village.

She has also worked with two former Detroit Tigers, Jim Price and Gates Brown, at the YMCA Open House, was the mistress of ceremonies for the children's Halloween party downtown, was the official greeter for Santa's arrival downtown and served breakfast at the Masonic Temple for the farmers breakfast.

WHEN THERAPY IS PRESCRIBED

Peachwood Inn offers physical, occupational and speech therapy. Our professional staff, following your doctor's orders, design individualized care plans for each resident. They work with each resident to help them reach their maximum potential. There is also a restorative therapy program that continues to help each person maintain their highest level of function.

Our therapists work in our fully equipped therapy room, they work bedside and throughout the entire building. In good weather they even will work outside. The goal is to rehabilitate but our staff also adds a few other important care features like genuine concern, understanding and friendly smiles and laughter.
