

Women's wear salutes refined taste and high style

Pink, pastel and electric bright ensembles call attention to the feminine form when they're accented by cinched waists, longer jackets, corseted vests, and high heels. The longer silhouettes are achieved by wearing soft-legged pants, fly away tunics, slim skirts and jumpsuits. If you like the shorter lengths, cropped jackets over swing skirts or cigarette leggings are the deal. Shine and shimmer comes from new metallic fabrics as well as rhinestone buttons and buckles. Patent leather at your feet. The seasons prettiest styles are designed in crepes, sand-washed silks, peau de soie, cotton and linen.

It's the Year of the Dress, and there is something for everyone — empires, A-lines, jackets over sheaths. Designers have abandoned the oversized grunge and waif looks for more tailored clothes that inspire elegance and glamour — and women are ready for it!
