Local jewelers win trip to San Diego

Joyce Pappas and Tina Mazzoni of Orin Jewelers in Garden City and Northville were among 600 sales associates who took part in Citizens Watch Co.'s national incentive contest, and won a trip to San Diego to experience the America's Cup first hand. Pappas is a resident of Garden City, and Mazzoni is a resident of Farmington Hills.

"We stayed at Loews Coronado Bay resort enjoying much of what San Diego had to offer," said Pappas. "It was a marvelous trip. The hotel was gorgeous, and they had something fun planned for us every night."

In addition, they spent a day on the water watching Race Four of the fourth round of the Citizens Cup on board the Pacific Hornblower.

The race was won by Stars and Stripes.

Pappas and Mazzoni also spent a day touring the compounds of PAC 95, the America's Cup and having lunch at Team Dennis Connors' compound, The Stars and Stripes.

"This is the second time we have run this sales incentive," said Laurence R. Grunstein, president Citizens Watch Co. of America.

"Not only is it a good business promotion but it allows people from around the country who sell
