Richard Agninan

SCC exec honored for efforts

Richard Agninan, president of Suburban Communications Corp., parent company of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, will be honored as one of the recipients of the annual Michigan's Outstanding Volunteers award.

Agninan, a Birmingham resident, is past president of the Community House in Birmingham.

He will be recognized at a luncheon today at the Ritz Carlton in Dearborn by the National Society of Fund Raising Executives.

Agninan said he believes that

everyone should give something back to their community through volunteer efforts.

"In tragedies, people always pitch in but we've got to make it a part of everyday life," Agninan said.

He applauded such programs as the community service program at the public schools that encourages young people to become active participants in efforts that improve their towns.

"People have got to make the time to volunteer. You make time for other things and this shouldn't be any different. People have got to make the time to devote to their communities and give back instead of take," Agninan said.

Agninan headed the expansion of The Community House, working with architects and holding weekly planning meetings, as well as overseeing the fund-raising efforts that made the new wing possible.

A member of the board of directors for eight years, Agninan served as vice president in charge of facilities during the expansion and then served as president of the board from 1990 to 1992.

Agninan has been president of Suburban Communications Corporation 1977. He has served as president of the trade association Suburban Newspapers of America, served on the Governor's Committee Michigan Newspaper Recycling Task Force and on the board of directors for Walsh College and the Corporation for a Skilled Workforce.

He has served on the board of directors for Henry Ford Hospital-West Bloomfield, U.S. Suburban Press, Michigan Press Association, Leadership Oakland steering committee and Young Presidents Association.

He is vice chairman for finance for the 1996 USGA Open Golf Tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club. He also is a member of the Economic Club of Detroit.

The National Society of Fund Raising Executives is a professional organization of more than 10,000 fund-raising executives and 107 chapters nationwide. The Michigan Chapter has 291 members.

"At Botsford Commons, I own my home and and have access to health care services."

Although a lot of my friends live down south, I wanted to be here, close to my family. One day, my son told me about the independent life-style at Botsford Commons in Farmington Hills. When he showed me the new homes in the beautiful, wooded setting, I had no problem deciding.

Because I grew up in a small town, the private, full-service community atmosphere really appealed to me. Everyone is so nice here—my neighbor can't wait until the coffee shop opens.

Being able to own my home, without paying an entrance fee, was very attractive to me. All of the condominiums and apartments are designed with special features, such as an emergency call service, for continued independence. At Botsford Commons, my lawn maintenance and snow removal are taken care of. And I can choose to purchase additional amenities, including health care services, when needed.

I don't think I could have found a nicer place. My grandchildren love to visit too.
