Goba and Alina Hentnik in the 3,200 relay (11:49).
The Falcons had other firsts from Andrea Saylor, high jump (6-2); Jenny Pringle, long jump (13-0); Veronica Klein, 200 (31.1); and Theresa Derwinski, 800 (2:53.7).
The winning 800 relay team consisted of Monique Bush, Sarah Nolan, Rachel Lukasiak and Jessica Urbel and posted a 2:11.9 time.
"I thought the kids performed exceptionally well, considering the horrible conditions," coach Bruce Brown said, referring to high winds, "and Kim Washnock had a big day."
Farmington is 1-1 in the Lakes Division and 1-2 overall.
Hawks hammer Chargers
Devron Kennedy, Krista Snow and Allison Noe were double individual winners Thursday when host Farmington Hills Harrison defeated Livonia Churchill 89-40.
Noe won the 800 run (2:35.5) and 1,600 (5:34.8). Snow the long jump (16-5) and 100 hurdles (16.7). Kennedy the 100 dash (13.5) and 200 (28.1).
Harrison's Mandi Berg had the best throw in the shot put (31.4) and Patti Dixon in the discus (87-1). Teammate Amy Jenkins won the 400 dash (1:06.8).
Harrison, 1-1 in the Western Division and 2-1 overall, swept first place in the relays.
Churchill's Norm Fuchs won the 1,600 and 3,200 runs in 4:54.4 and 10:47.9, and he also helped the Chargers win the 3,200 relay (8:43.9). Churchill won the 800 relay (1:42.6), too.
Trio paces Raiders
Richard Beal, Brian Rajdi and Tom Stamboulain figured in five of North Farmington's seven first places Thursday.
But the Raiders were short in the final tally, losing to host Livonia Stevenson, 75-62.
Beal won the 100 dash (11.89) and the 400 (54.58). Rajdi won the 1,600 run (4:48) and Stamboulain the 3,200 run (10:22.3).
Rajdi and Stamboulain combined with Niraj Nall and Steve Chen to win the 3,200 relay (8:52.9).
North also had firsts from Jason Rawlewski in the discus (121-2) and Phil Zaid in the high jump (6-10).
The Raiders are 0-2 in the Lakes Division and 0-3 overall.
Harrison boys coast
Farmington Hills Harrison rolled over host Livonia Churchill for an 80-57 victory in boys track Thursday.
The Hawks are 2-0 in the Western Division and 3-0 overall, the Chargers 0-2 and 0-4.
Seniors Eshan Allos and Kevin Bryant won two events apiece and helped Harrison win the 400-meter relay.
Allos was first in the long jump (19-5) and 100 dash (11.2). Bryant won the high hurdles (15.2) and the intermediate hurdles in 44 seconds.
Gerrard Johnson and Jason Granger combined with Allos and Bryant to win the relay (45.8).
The Hawks also won the 1,600 relay (3:41.1) with the team of Jared Roth, Matt Haas, Steve Catherman and Mike Korby.
Sophomore Nick Shaeb was a double winner in the shot put (45-11) and discus (144-4). Harrison had other firsts from Doug Brodacki in the high jump (6-0) and Johnson in the 200 dash (25.5).
field and rified a throw to Schneider at home plate, who tagged Amy LaGrow trying to score from second.
"That's one of those things you practice every time you practice fielding," Teachman said. "It might come up one or two times during the year, and it might win you a ball game — and it did."
"If I had the same opportunity, I'd do it 100 times over," Arnold said. "It's a game of this caliber, I'm going to send her. It takes a perfect throw, I didn't second guess myself on that."
Nicastri allowed only two base runners from the third inning through the ninth, retiring the side in order five times. Harrison left Kristen Kozlarski at third in the sixth — its best scoring chance during those innings.
The Hawks also had a key double play from Schwalm, who caught a fly ball in right field and doubled up a pinch runner at first in the eighth.
"They're a young team and, obviously, we have to let it now, because we don't have a young team," Teachman said. "This is only the fourth game; we have a ton of games to play. But this proves we can play this game."
Lisa Rozum had two hits and an RBI. Christie Soter and Julia Sheffer added one hit and two RBI apiece. Cathy Herber suffered the defeat.
Ladywood's offense erupted in the nightcap, as the Blazers scored three times in the first inning and seven more times in the second. The big hit in the seven-run outburst was a bases-loaded clearing double by Jessica Roman, who had three hits.
Grace Allen ripped three singles, and Nicole Hayden drove in two runs. Amy Kilber went the distance to record the win.
The Raiders are 1-3 in the Lakes Division and 1-3 overall, the Spartans 1-2 and 2-3.
MARIAN 8-6, LADYWOOD 6-12: Livonia Ladywood's bats came alive in the second game Friday to give the host Blazers earned a Catholic League split.
Birmingham Marian won the opener as the Mustangs scored six times on six hits in the third inning. Ladywood scored three runs in the sixth and again in the seventh, but it wasn't enough.
for the winners, who improved to 6-3.
In the nightcap, Pogle belted a three-run homer in the first inning. She finished with three hits and drove in five more runs.
Junior Joel Janigan was the winning pitcher in both games.
HAMTRAC 7, CLARENCVILLE 2: After having all of its games canceled due to bad weather, Livonia Clarencville finally got to play its first game Thursday.
The results were hardly festive as the Trojans fell behind early 5-0, committing four of their five errors in losing the Metro Conference contest at Hamtramck.
The Cosmos (4-2) received a strong pitching performance by William Garbarz, who struck out 13 and walked only one. Sophomore Amy Jones suffered the defeat for Clarencville.
Sophomore Stacey Kaminski was 2-for-2 with a run scored for the Trojans. Senior Wendy Roy and Junior Nora Kolbusz each had a hit and knocked in a run.

Acc pitcher: Senior Erin LaCrosse provided solid pitching for the Hawks, scattering five hits and striking out nine in 10 innings.

Christine Popovich added a pinch-hit RBI single during a four-run third inning, and Kim Sanders walked twice and scored two runs.
Sophomores Dana Dulick (5-0) also pitched a three-hitter in the nightcap. She, too, walked three out and struck out five.
The Marlins led 3-0 before Regina scored in the bottom of the seventh. Mets and Jennifer Lis drove in one run apiece with a double and a single, respectively, in a two-run sixth.
STEVENS 8, NORTH 7: Pitch runner Jill Splice scored the winning run in the top of the ninth inning Friday.
After winning pitcher Laura Krol hit safely, Splice stole second, was sacrificed to third and scored on a passed ball.
The Raiders put two runners aboard with no outs in the bottom of the ninth but failed to score.
A pair of three-run innings in the fourth and fifth gave North a 7-3 lead, but Stevenson scored single runs in the sixth and seventh innings to tie.
Katie Deveroux was 4-for-5 with a pair of triples and one RBI for the Raiders.
Dense Dohak and Kelly Brannack went 3-for-5 and Lynn Livonita 2-for-2. Brannack had two RBI and scored two runs as did Deveroux.
Krol, who went the distance allowing 15 hits and four walks, was 3-for-4 with four RBI. Christi Carruthers and Andrea Gaston had two hits each.
Michelle Spita started and pitched 4 1/3 innings for North, but Katie Collins got the loss in relief.
The Raiders are 1-3 in the Lakes Division and 1-3 overall, the Spartans 1-2 and 2-3.
MARIAN 8-6, LADYWOOD 6-12: Livonia Ladywood's bats came alive in the second game Friday to give the host Blazers earned a Catholic League split.
Birmingham Marian won the opener as the Mustangs scored six times on six hits in the third inning. Ladywood scored three runs in the sixth and again in the seventh, but it wasn't enough.

"She went in to inning with one of the best pitchers in the league, and that tells you a lot about Jackie Nicastri," Arnold said.
"I got her a little upset with me during the game, and she pitched even harder. She pitched with a lot of determination today."
Canton took a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Sikora hit a leadoff double and scored on a pair of wild pitches.
Harrison tied the game with a 1-0 game," Teachman said. "When they scored, I felt a few stares on the back of my neck. But that's why they named themselves the junkyard dawgs, because they aren't going to give up."
Harrison tied the score in the bottom of the second. Geary singled and advanced on Kathy Schneider's hit, a wild pitch and Foster's RBI groundout.
After stranding runners at second and third in the second, LaCrosse retired the next 12 batters and didn't allow another hit until the seventh.
The Chiefs might have taken the lead in that inning but for a good defensive play by Harrison.
Kelly LaCrosse fielded Shana Eldwell's liner in short center
