Holiday Inn employee honored, another appointed

Dean King, general manager of the Farmington Hills Holiday Inn, announced an honor for one of his employees and an appointment of another.
Hotel reservationist Monica Nogalski has earned top honors from Holiday Inn Worldwide, and Cheryl Curley has joined the organization as director of sales.
Nogalski was one of 9,131 Holiday Inn Worldwide hotel employees recognized in the 1994 PlusPerformer program. She received recognition cards and ribbons from the most Priority Plus and Canadian Priority Club members in the state of Michigan.
This is the fifth year the PlusPerformer program has been in existence and the Holiday Inn Farmington Hills has been number one for the last three years.
In honor of this accomplishment, the Holiday Inn Worldwide hotels presented Nogalski with a gold pin.

"It is a real pleasure to work with such a wonderful professional, said as Monica Nogalski," said King.
Born and raised in Dearborn Heights, Nogalski has been with the Holiday Inn Farmington Hills for 11 years.
As director of sales, Curley will supervise the sales and reservation staff. She will also be responsible for advertising, marketing and sales promotions.
Curley brings with her more than 15 years of experience in the hotel industry. Previously, she worked as director of sales and marketing for the Athenaeum Suite Hotels and Conference Center in Detroit.

Young people can audition for 'Robin Hood' production

The Community House of Birmingham and Sara Smith Productions will hold auditions for the second full length theatrical event produced by the Popcorn Players Theatre School. Youth ages eight to 19 may audition for "Robin Hood" 4-7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12, and Wednesday, Sept. 13.
Auditioners must sign up for a five-minute time slot. Audition slots may be reserved by calling The Community House youth director, Michelle Prylak at (810) 444-5832.
Auditioners will be required to read a one-minute monologue or poem. Optional reading material will be available for the one-minute monologue. Call backs will be 4-7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 19. Rehearsals will be 4-6:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays and some Saturdays.
"Robin Hood" is an original 45-minute play written and directed by Scott Peerbolt. The show dates are 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 18 and 2 and 5 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 19. Scott Peerbolt is a professional actor and producer who has extensive experience working with children in a theater setting.

Sara Smith created the Popcorn Players at The Community House eight years ago. It is a Saturday morning class, which runs regularly throughout fall, winter and spring. Smith taught performing arts in the Detroit Public Schools for more than 30 years and was one of the Senior Division Directors for the Cranbrook Theatre School for 16 years. She has been with the Wayne State University theater group and St. Dunstan's Theatre Guild.

The Popcorn Players presented their first full length theatrical production, "Aladdin," in January 1995. The production was a musical written by Scott Peerbolt and Theresa Weiss.
The Community House is a non-profit organization which offers educational, social and cultural programs, child care, employment assistance, meeting room, banquet and catering services, and group travel activities. The House is at 380 South Bates Street in downtown Birmingham.
