Lord makes all-state team

The state's best girls high school soccer players have been chosen, and four of them are from Western Lakes Activities Associchosen, and 1000 rd intens are invested as Activities Association schools. Which matches the Oakland Athletic League for number of representatives on the 11-person dream team. The four Dream Team players from the WLAA are North Farmington's All Lord, a senior forward; Livonia Stevenson's Laure Pédrigo, a senior midfielder, Plymouth Salom's Mari Hoff, a junior midfielder/forward.

Other Observerland players singled out for honors were Churchill effected with the senior Salom forward Kelly Lukasik, a senior; and Farmington Harrison keeper Sara Kloosterman, a sophomore, all named to the Class A second team; and Stevenson forward Michelle Block, a senior honorable mention all-stater.

In addition, Salem's retiring coach, Ken Johnson, was one of six regional coaches of the year in Class A.

North's Lord was chosen WLAA player of the year, and it was an honor she carned. In her second-consecutive season on the state's dream team, Lord set school record by scoring 35 goals this season. She also had 15 as siab.

Fedrigo was also first team all-WLAA and served as Stevenson's co-captain for the second-atraight year. She scored 12 goals and assisted on seven others.

Hoff led all Observerland players in goal-scoring, nettling 38 and assisting on 10 others while leading the Rocks to the Class A state final. Her goal total was also a Salem achool record.

Spaccarotella moved to midfield for the Chargers this season, but it hardly affected her goalscoring. She collected 24 to run her career total to 66 before suffering a knee injury that forced her to miss Churchill's final two games of the season.

Salem (16-4-3) finished scond in the Class A final standings, behind state champ Birmingham Scabolm. Churchill (17-5) tied for fourth with Brighton, and Stevenson (16-4-1) was sixth.
