SPORTS SHORTS

Items for the Sports Roundup should be submitted by 5 p.m. Tuesday (for the Thursday edition) and 5 p.m. Friday (for the Monday edition).

■ IN-LINE HOCKEY CAMP

Holler hockey camps for boys and girls will take place at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus July 10-14. The times will be 9 a.m. to noon for children in the 9-12 age group, 1-4 p.m. for 13-16 ages. The fee is $95 for all ages. Participants will be provided with safety equipment to use during the camp. They also will receive a free T-shirt and a ticket to a Mustangs home game. In addition to in-line hockey, OCC offers basketball, baton, gymnastics and soccer camps for boys and girls in grades 1 to 12. The camps are sponsored by the Motor City Mustangs, a professional roller hockey team based in Detroit, and MGM Bicycle and Fitness. For information on all camps call (810) 471-7717 or (810) 471-7716.

■ SUMMER BASEBALL

Robert Roth of Farmington Hills had an on-base percentage of .818 and six stolen bases in three games for the Dearborn Heights Connie Mack baseball team.

The North Farmington senior-to-be had two hits, three walks, five stolen bases and two runs scored in the first two games. Dearborn Heights lost 10-9 to Westland and beat Garden City 8-2.

Roth has been on base nine of a possible 11 times.

■ VAULTER CLEARS 14-6

Pole vaulter Paul Terek, who recently completed his sophomore season at Livonia Franklin, cleared a personal best 14 feet, 6 inches to finish tied for first at the Michigan AAU Junior Olympics meet.

Terek, a first-team All-Oberver pick, will compete in regional competition next month in Cleveland, Ohio. The Nationals are scheduled for Des Moines, Iowa.

■ WHELAN AWARD WINNER

Andy Short of Livonia was recently presented with the Father James Whelan Award at Redford Catholic Central High School, given annually to the top senior scholar-athlete and gentleman. Short finished with a 4.06 grade-point average and was an All-Oberver first-team pick in football and a second-teamer in wrestling. He was the Shamrock captain in both sports.

■ SOCCER CHAMPS

The Livonia Y Meteors, an under-11 boys soccer team, recently captured the Blue Division title at the Findlay (Ohio) Invitational.

The team is coached by John Cioma and Roger Stacey. Henry Khoe is the team manager.

■ COLLEGIATE NOTE

Joe Vandracek (Livonia/Redford Catholic Central), member of the Central Michigan University baseball team, was recently named to the CMU Student-Athlete Honor Roll for the spring semester. To be named to the honor roll, an athlete must carry a 3.0 grade-point average or better.

■ VOLLEYBALL CAMP
Madonna University will hold a series of summer volleyball camps — Elite and General Players, Wednesday through Saturday, July 5-8; Setters and Youth, Monday through Thursday, July 10-13; and Hitters and Defensive, July 17-20. All camps are $80 with the exception of the youth basic skills camp ($50). For more information, call Jerry Abraham at (313) 591-5153 or (810) 478-7107.
