outstanding female athlete at North Farmington. Alysha is a dedicated and hard-working student. North coach Bud Pinner Jr. said, "Not only is she an outstanding track athlete and basketball player, her academic accomplishments (three academic all-stars) are also outstanding."

Devonnie Plazi, N. Farmington, discus: This junior "is very dedicated to her discus throwing," coach Pinner said. "Devonnie is a disciplined student athlete who strives to perfect her form. She is a pleasure to coach."

Pinner also surpassed the previous school discus record (after Gordon broke it first) and established a personal best of 120-11.

Nkechi Okwumabua, Canton, long jump: Just a freshman, Okwumabua "had a tremendous first year," coach George Protopapas said. "She became a long jumper in midseason. She has become a perfectionist in this event and has worked hard to improve her technique. She is exceptionally strong and an outstanding sprinter."

Nkechi is also a perfectionist in the classroom. This year she has maintained a 4.0 GPA.

Okwumabua's best long jump was a school record 17-2, which qualified her for the state meet. She was the Western Lakes Activities Association and regional champion, and she also ran a state-meet qualifying 12.7 in the 100.

Andrea Salyer, Farmington, high jumper: Salyer finished third in the state meet with jump of 5-5, an inch off her school record. She won the Oakland County and regional championships and will attend Central Michigan on a track scholarship.

"I was really impressed with her focus and dedication this year," coach Bruce Brown said. "When she gets into a good groove with weight conditioning, she has the potential to be a 6-foot high jumper. She has excellent form and just needs to get stronger."

Amy Dahl, Mercy, 100 hurdles: The Oakland County, Catholic League and regional champion lowered her time by .35 to 15.5. Her goal next year is the school record of 15.2, and she's also looking to break 50.0 in the 300 hurdles. Her 1979 points is second only to Eileen O'Connell's school record 199. Dahl was named Mercy's most valuable runner. She is also an excellent high jumper.

"She worked real hard and is looking forward to bigger and better things," coach Gary Senivas said. "She has a real good shot at both (hurdle records). She's talking about running cross country, and that will help her strength and speed quite a bit."

Jeannette Stojcevali, Stevenson, 300 hurdles: This excellent junior was undefeated in dual meets this season, won the WAAA and regional titles and finished seventh in the state finals. She set a school record of 46.0.

"Jeannette was our most versatile athlete," coach Paul Holmberg said. "She is capable of running everything from the 100 on up and competed in nine different events this year. She has a great desire to improve and is willing to do the work required."

Lindsay Soter, Ladywood, 100 dash: Another junior, Soter had a best time of 12.5, finishing third in the regional and making the semifinals at the state meet.

"Lindsay has been an enthusiastic and valued performer for the last three years at Ladywood," coach Eric O'Brien said. "She has worked very hard to get where she is and has become a consistent winner in individual and relay events."

Devron Kennedy, Harrison, 200 dash: The sophomore star led her own school and WAAA record of 25.8, and she was second in the Oakland County championship.

"Devron is very talented and learning to set goals for herself," coach Mark Babment have led Sarah to steady improvement throughout her high school career." Salem coach Mark Gregor said. "Her accomplishments in four years at Salem are astounding."

Kelly Travis, Stevenson, 1,600 run: This freshman was undefeated in dual meets, captured the WAAA championship at 1:00.0 meters and was second at 800. Her time of 5:14.9 placed her second in the regional, and she finished 10th in the state. She also was second at 3,200 meters in the regional and was seventh in the state.

"Kelly has established herself as one of the best distance runners in the state," Holmberg said. "She is a fiery competitor who will write new records at Stevenson."

Kelly McNallance, Stevenson, 3,200 run: The other of Holmberg's two stellar freshmen Kelly girls, McNallance was also undefeated in dual meets, took the WAAA title for 3,200 meters and was third at 1,600. She placed ninth in the state finals and set a personal best of 11:36.3 while finishing fourth in the regional.

"Kelly had a great first year, but her best times are still ahead of her," Holmberg said. "She works hard and has a winning attitude."

Eileen O'Connell, Mercy, at-large: O'Connell was such an outstanding middle- and long-distance runner for four years that area coaches made her an at-large selection despite a season-ending injury.

The senior didn't run the last month of the season because of a hip stress fracture, which caused her to miss the Catholic League, regional and state meets. She still had some of the fastest times in the 800 (2:18.6), 1,000 (3:12.4) and 3,200 (11:41.2).

"She's still the best runner I've ever coached," Senivas said. "She has had a phenomenal career, averaging 140 points a season. She has amazing range; she can run anything from 200 to 5,000 meters and run it well."

400 relay, Harrison (Devron Kennedy, Monique Anderson, Erika Greene, Kristie Snow): The WAAA champions set a school record of 50.2. They were runners-up in the Oakland County championships and regional, and they placed sixth in the state finals.

"This is the finest relay we've ever had," Babcock said. "All Area was one of their goals this year. They worked very hard and deserve recognition."

800 relay, Ladywood (Lindsay Soter, Kara McDonald, Shannon Swish, Nicole Clauson): Their best time of 1:46.0 removed a record which had stood since 1978. The CHSL and Operation Friendship champions finished second at the regional and sixth in the state. Clauson is the only senior.

"This group has worked hard together for two years and just exploded at regionals this year, running four seconds faster than they ever had to set the school record," O'Brien said. "With two juniors and a sophomore, this group has a promising future. Nicole will be sorely missed, but this team will be there next year."

1,600 relay, Salem (Marcia Parker, Courtney Sheldon, Katie Bonner, Sarah Hamilton): Three seniors and freshman Bonner were fourth-place finishers in the state, third in the regional and second in the WAAA. Their best time of 4:03.2 was a second in Salem history.

"Sarah, Marcia and Courtney are three of the top four point scorers in school history, and they certainly showed Katie what being competitive at the state level is all about," Gregor said. "Katie has three more years to help lead Salem to similar heights."

3,200 relay, Salem (Courtney Sheldon, Kristie Giddings, Miranda Wade, Sarah Hamilton): The second-best Salem team ever had a peak time of 9:42.5 and was undefeated in its dual meets and won the WAAA championship. Giddings and Wade are sophomores.

Courtney and Sarah started and finished the relay all season and did an excellent job of showing others how to get it done," Gregor said. "As a foursome, this group set some great goals and showed great determination in reaching them."
