

Farmington bowler pins historic 1st season

A little history was made last week during the annual awards dinner hosted jointly by the Greater Detroit Bowling Association and the Detroit Women's Bowling Association at the Polish Century Club.

Tamika Glenn of Farmington, in her first year of adult competition, became the first woman to win the prestigious award as GDBA's singles and all-events singles champion.

Farmington's Tamika Glenn became the first person to gain berths on both the men's and ladies All-City squads.

Another piece of history: Glenn earned a spot on the men's second team. Never before has any bowler made both the men's and ladies All-City squads.

All in all, a pretty fair night for Tamika Glenn.

The banquet also signaled a new era of leadership for the associations as new officers were sworn in for the coming year.

Joe Goutans handed the gavel to incoming president Frank P...

the television finals staged before a record-setting crowd of 7,212. It was one of the best bowling events ever witnessed in our area.

In the recent Stroh's Beer Michigan Majors doubles event, Keith Caldwell of Farmington Hills teamed up with Mark Hlova of Redford to win the fifth-place prize money of $1,000.

Doug DeMarolis of West Bloomfield and Mitch Jabczynski took sixth, earning $300.

The duo of Larry Frans (Redford) and Steve Roberts took 20th, while Garrett Negle (Westland) and Fred Ramirez (Livonia) wound up 24th.

The Stroh's MMBA stages monthly tournaments at various sites around the state.

One of the area's top youth leagues is the Country High School League, which is held at Country Lanes in Farmington.

Team No. 1 Spirit won the championship thanks to the efforts of Brandon Welling, Bill Gababel and Brandon Popowicz.

Timothy Dean posted 300 for the high game and the high average at 212. He also took high series honors with an 802 actual.

Jason Holowicki added a 239 followed by Matt Lapham at 255.

The top girls include Kelly Stokes (238), Jeanine Bennett (216) and Carleen Schlicht (214).

sink or swim, and Steve was the only one that swam." Neon head coach Chris Keenan said.

But the first season wasn't without choppy waters between Keenan and McCaul. McCaul left a practice early in the season after a dispute with Keenan.

"I've got a perspective, too," Keenan said. "When I'm the boss and until someone tells me I'm not the boss, you've got to listen."

"We were in a defensive scheme and he called me out," McCaul recalled. "We're both intense. I got back in his face and said 'I don't need this,' took off my jersey and left the field."

McCaul was allowed to return to the team, and the turning point in his season came a week later at a road game in Fortland.

McCaul made the trip, but wasn't expected to play. About 10
